

DECISIVE BATTLE AT HAND FOR CONTROL OF PEKING

Manchu War Lord Determined to Suffer Defeat Rather Than Humiliation by Japan

PEKING, May 21. (Exclusive)—A desperate and perhaps final battle in the Nationalist struggle for control of Peking, including all China within the Great Wall, is about to be fought on a line from Manchang, forty miles south of Tien-tsin, to Paoingfu, ninety miles south of Peking. Should the Manchurian forces be unable to hold there Marshal Chang Tso-lin will retire beyond Shan-haiwan, but not until he has made a last effort to check the southern advance.

Anticipating the possibility of the dictator's withdrawal, the Japanese, who are determined not to permit disorder in North China, announce that troops will be permitted to pass the Tien-tsin Railway station, provided none attempt to hold there beyond Shan-haiwan, but not until he has made a last effort to check the southern advance.

CANARIES SING FUNERAL DIRGE

Warblers Saved by Suicide as He Turns on Gas, Chant Last Litany

CHICAGO, May 21. (Exclusive)—When Gustav Boldin, 68 years of age, prepared to end his life with gas in his home, two canaries in cages in the kitchen where he lived down to die started to sing. Boldin didn't want the pets to die with him, so he locked them in a breakfast room and opened all the windows. When he was found dead on the kitchen floor by his wife today the canaries were again singing in the sunshine that streamed into the breakfast room.

loving people, must turn for a cessation of hostilities," Marshal Chang stated. "Peace cannot reign until the southern forces have the common sense to see that a complete victory in civil war will not help matters in the diplomatic arena. The country must face, yet, under present circumstances, it is impractical to suggest a unilateral withdrawal. While militarily we are prepared to meet the southern forces in case of a further invasion, the authorities still hope that enlightened opinion will lead them to see the futility of continuing the struggle, which is only augmenting international difficulties."

AMERICAN WARNING DELIVERED TO CHINESE

WASHINGTON, May 21. (Exclusive)—State Department officials said today the memorandum of the United States to the leaders of the warring Chinese factions warning them that the American government will not permit to be permitted to come into dangerous contacts with our nationals in certain prescribed areas was delivered to the Chinese Minister MacMurray on his own initiative under his general instructions from the department.

Practically identical notes were delivered on the subject, one to the Minister of Foreign Affairs at Peking and the other to Gen. Hwang Ho, Minister of Foreign Affairs of the Nationalist government at Nanking.

Attention was called by Minister MacMurray to the fact that at present the scope of military events developing in the sections around Tien-tsin and Peking and that Tien-tsin is the refuge of several thousand American citizens.

MOSCOW, May 21. (Exclusive)—Recent Japanese activities in China are decidedly disapproved by the Soviet government, said a statement issued today through the agency of M. Tchitcherine, minister of foreign affairs. The statement was issued in response to questions propounded by the Soviet press.

M. Tchitcherine said the Japanese attitude toward China is contrary to the Soviet policy of noninterference in the domestic affairs of foreign countries, and that of China in particular. He said the United States, Great Britain, and France seem to approve the Japanese policy by their silence. He added that this furnishes a new proof of the insincerity of the assistance and peaceful intentions of the League.

ATTEMPT TO FLY BREMEN ABANDONED

Craft May be Torn Down and Shipped on Steamer; Wrecking Still Mystery

NEW YORK, May 21. (Exclusive)—The trans-Atlantic liner Bremen lay wrecked on a Labrador beach tonight, so badly damaged that plans to fly her to New York were definitely abandoned.

Salvage operations appear to be temporarily at a standstill, but officials of the Junkers Corporation of America said they are negotiating to have the big ship dismantled and brought on the last leg of her long voyage by steamer.

Reports from St. John's, N. F., are that only minor details of the unsuccessful attempt at a take-off Sunday had seeped out of the north. But a brief message from Long Point, where the ship now is, indicates the Bremen did not even get off the ground before it crashed so badly as to preclude the possibility of flight.

The message said only "Bremen had much difficulty, could not rise." One theory entertained here is that the plane attempted to take off from the beach but was crushed in the floating ice. Another possibility is that she was crushed while being lowered into the water.

SOLOVICH TRIAL HINTS SCANDAL

Defendant Promises to Tell Startling Story

Athlete Accused of Death of "Blackmailer"

Surprise Witnesses May be Called in Case

MANLY (Utah) May 21. (Exclusive)—While hundreds of persons milled around the historic Old Courthouse, a relic of the Black Hawk War of 1800, Sheldon Clark, 23 years of age, athlete, chauffeur and bodyguard for Don Solovich, Hollywood's most mysterious man, went on trial today for the murder of the man who bore the reputation of an archblackmailer.

Three outstanding developments marked the initial session of the proceedings which will determine judicially whether Clark killed Lita Gray Chaplin's former bodyguard, and left his body beside a lonely road nine miles from here while he and Solovich were fleeing eastward in Solovich's roadster.

Clark promises to break his long silence concerning events in the film colony preceding the crime.

"When I take the stand," he told the reporters, "I am going to clear up the mystery surrounding Clark and Lita Gray Chaplin's connections with Solovich and you'll better sharpen your pencils and tell your readers what is going to be one of the hottest trials they've ever heard about."

The prosecution intimated that several surprise witnesses would be summoned from Los Angeles to testify.

Solovich and Clark fled from Los Angeles in December and the mystery man's body was found on January 6. Seven trunks, purported to contain compromising documents, involving many persons of prominence, were found in the trunk of the car.

It was reported that two theories may be advanced by the prosecution, one that the crime was committed at the instance of unidentified persons in Los Angeles who wanted Solovich put out of the way because of information he had obtained from a source of conspiracy angle, it is indicated, that several witnesses may be called from Los Angeles.

Nelson Shuts Out Seraphs, 3-0 And Bells Run Off With Series

SCENE FROM MANDELL-M'LARNIN FIGHT

CHERUBS HELD TO THREE HITS

Missions Make Two Runs in First Off Weathersby

Wright Yields Final Tally to Visitors in Ninth

Krugers Have But One Chance to Score Off Nelson

BY BOB RAY

It's bad enough to get trimmed on a regular working day, but it's worse—oh! much worse—to have to play on your day off and take a shelling.

That's what happened to Marty Krug's slumping Seraphs yesterday at Wrigley Field, where the Mission Bells handed them a 3-to-1 licking to carry off the odd game of the series.

Mr. "Nellie" Nelson, who has won one of those "made in Sweden" countenances, was the hurler who handed the Angels their second successive shutout.

Nelson didn't do quite as well as Claude Davenport did on Sunday. Davenport didn't allow the Cherubs a hit, while Nelson was touched for three safeties. That makes three safeties in two games for the Angels, who are in the throes of something which can't be termed a slump; it's much worse than that.

Tex Weathersby, the pudgy southpaw who started on the mound for the Krugers, pitched a good brand of ball, but a bad first inning kept him the coolest. The Bells bunched three singles with an error by Dittmar to put across two runs in the opening round and that was enough to insure them of victory. Dee Wright worked the ninth for the Angels, after Weathersby had been hit for a pinch hitter, and the Bells put over their third run on the ceiling. Dittmar made from Big Stone Gap.

SCHULMERICH HITS TWO

Wes Schulmerich and Carl Dittmar were the only Seraphs to nick Nelson's slants for hits. Schulmerich laced out two singles and Dittmar got the other one. Weathersby and Berger worked the Mission finger for walks and were the only other Angels to get on first. You can't expect to win anything with an offense like that.

The Angels made only one threat to break into the run column and that was in the fifth inning. After a bad lead by Schulmerich, a short right hit by Schulmerich drove the right fielder into the clubhouse. The Angels drove in two runs on a single by Schulmerich and a sacrifice by Dittmar.

The other two Angels who got on the sacks didn't advance past first, so successfully did Nelson past first. Schulmerich and Dittmar were the only other Angels to get on first. You can't expect to win anything with an offense like that.

CHAMP RETAINS CROWN IN BRISTLING STRUGGLE

Angeleno's Quest for Title Fails as Lightweight King Captures Verdict in New York Ring

BY ALAN J. GOULD

Associated Press Sports Editor

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, May 21. (P)—Seeking the end of the lightweight rainbow, fighting Jimmy McLarnin chased a fleeting, dark-haired shadow in vain tonight and Sammy Mandell is still 135-pound champion of the world.

In fifteen slashing, bristling rounds, Mandell, a jabbing, elusive jumping jack, repulsed the challenge of the young Irishman in decisive fashion, with one of the greatest exhibitions of boxing skill the lightweight class has ever seen. Benny Leonard was in his prime.

Mandell's victory over the California challenger was as convincing as a starling's. Off to a hurried start, the champion had McLarnin dizzy and bewildered with a fast, furious and varied attack. From start to finish, Sammy piled up a margin on points that never was threatened, in spite of McLarnin's most courageous rallies.

McLarnin found out to his annoyance and sorrow that a chin that can't be reached can't be cracked. Not once during the entire fifteen rounds was Jimmy able to reach Sammy's jaw with any of the few-fisted dynamite that has carried one young Irishman to the top of the challenging heap in the lightweight brigade. Several for that matter, was McLarnin able to penetrate Mandell's jumping jack defense or pin the champion to one spot long enough to swing a few solid punches.

They looked like two high-school youths at the start—Jimmy, chunky and baby-faced; Sammy, dark, sleek-haired and more experienced. But at the finish McLarnin was a sorry sight. His left eye, that had started to swell from the fifth round on, was shut tight. Blood streamed from his nose. He was a badly battered and disillusioned youth, the victim of greater experience, speed and a baffling left jab wielded by Mandell, who was still the sleek-haired champion at the finish, smiling and unmarked, except for the blotches around his ribs and waistline that testified to McLarnin's vicious body attack.

The decision of the two judges and Referee Lou Magnolia in the best of a series of three rounds.

SALO CAPTURES DERBY LAP

Finn Makes Desperate Attempt to Overhaul Andrew Payne, Leader of Race

DEPOSIT (N. Y.) May 21. (P)—Continuing his grim effort to overhaul Andrew Payne, Claremore (Okla.) youth who leads the pack, John Salo, Pasmic (N. J.) Finn, today set the pace for C. C. Pyle's bunion derbyists on the 74.6-mile lap from Waverly, N. Y., to the seventy-ninth century.

Salo covered the distance in 12m. 12m. 8s., bringing his elapsed time for the 329.3 miles from Los Angeles to 55:11:38.

The Pasmic Finn's excellent time for the long lap enabled him to shave 1h. 23m. 34s. from Payne's advantage. The Oklahoma finished third in a dead heat with James Pollard, of Reno, Nev. in 13:38:43.

Payne's total elapsed time, 55:11:38, gives him a lead of 16:19:45 over Salo. Pollard's elapsed time of 57:32:01 entrenches him in fifteenth place.

"Believe me, boy, I stepped that trip mighty cautious," said Payne. "Those miles seemed unending, the most maddening that I've covered so far. But I'm here and it's all over."

The day's lap was the longest of the transcontinental footrace which started at Los Angeles early in March. Salo's performance further cut into the lead of nearly eighteen hours Payne held when the trip to Deposit began at 6 o'clock this morning.

"Those were some hills, no fooling," Salo said. "I was in the lead for the first time in the trip."

Coach Clyde Swenson's squad left the field far in their wake in the chase for the championship points. Hollywood rolled up 84 1-2 digits, while its nearest competitor, Los Angeles, was gathering in 39 points. Franklin was third, with 5 points.

PADDOCK ON HIS WAY TO CALIFORNIA

King of Sprinters Leaves New York to Compete in Trials at Coliseum

NEW YORK, May 21. (Exclusive)

Two of America's hopes, one for the shortest Olympic distance and the other for the longest, went west today. Charley Paddock, the Grand Central Station on the "Twenty-Ninth" Limited, and Jole Ray left a few minutes later on the Broadway Limited for the Pennsylvania station. Paddock is likely to gain a place on the Olympic team in the 100-yard dash, the shortest distance, while Ray's sensational performance in the marathon last Saturday is held to have clinched his berth on the team for that event. After running in the Southern Pacific tryouts on June 16, Paddock will come east and complete his training in this vicinity. Ray will spend the last ten days before sailing for Europe training at Long Beach.

Paddock is en route to California. Both will be back, however, and in the not-too-distant future. After running in the Southern Pacific tryouts on June 16, Paddock will come east and complete his training in this vicinity. Ray will spend the last ten days before sailing for Europe training at Long Beach.

CHICAGO CRIME REWARDS TOLD

Vice Combinations Enrich Liquor Lords
Annual Profits Estimated at $13,500,000
McSwiggin Slaying Fiasco Given Scoring

CHICAGO, May 21. (P)—A story of two decades of "big business" that enabled certain Chicago vice and liquor lords to retire as millionaires and others to reign on, unbridled, for nearly twenty years is told in the report on "organized crime" published today by the Illinois Association for Criminal Justice.

The chronicle charged the existence of a powerful union of gambling, bookmaking, vice and political interests that five years ago was enriching gangsters and their protectors by $13,500,000 a year.

TENURE LENGTHY
Not the least interesting disclosure, said Judge Andrew A. Bruce, president of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology, in his preface to the report, is "the reign of power of real leaders of organized crime in Chicago. Chicago is longer and more secure than that of many of our college presidents, much longer than that of our public officials. Administrations come and go, but the overlord of vice continues in power."

The report is made up of two chapters, one "the rule of the gang," the other asking the question, "who killed McSwiggin?" The survey was conducted by John Landesco, a criminologist for the American Institute, and his report prepared by Judge Bruce. Eight other chapters, dealing with various phases of Chicago crime, are being prepared.

McSWIGGIN CASE
The machine gun slaying of William H. McSwiggin, assistant state's attorney of Cook county, in April, 1926, and the futile investigation that still is unfinished, are narrated in detail in the first chapter as constituting "the first direct attack by organized crime upon the government." A coroner's jury, a Federal grand jury and five special county grand juries investigated but no one was ever indicted for murder.

"The theories of the killing of McSwiggin, presented by public officials to the newspapers, revealed conditions as they were in Chicago," the report said. "All the theories in some way or other involved gang war over beer. The most persistent theory was that the O'Donnell-Capone beer war was the motive. The election fraud theories also involved gang war with the gangs reaching out for beer privileges as the stake of the election."

Klan Riot Fear Bans Parades
NEW YORK, May 21. (P)—Fear of a repetition of the Ku Klux Klan riot of last year has caused police to refuse permits for Memorial Day parades in Jamaica this year and several organizations today are planning legal proceedings.

Last year fifty persons were slightly injured when police endeavored to divert 1000 masked Klansmen in robes and hoods from the parade in Jamaica directed by the Citizens' Memorial Day Association. The association was notified this year that no blanket approval will be granted and that each organization intending to parade must apply individually.

SOCIALISTS WIN IN REICHSTAG

Radicals May Dictate Terms of New Government
Thirty Seats and 2,000,000 Votes Gained
Nationalists Suffer Loss of Thirty-eight Places

BERLIN, May 21. (P)—Balloting for the new Reichstag left the Socialists in a decisive strategic position with respect to their ability to dictate the terms under which a new German government will be constituted.

On the degree of moderation with which the German Labor party chooses to exercise its prerogative will depend largely the fate of the new Parliament. The Socialists and Communists have gained 2,000,000 votes and thirty seats, whereas more than a score of mandates have been lost by the three so-called Republican parties—the People's party, the Centralists and Democrats—as compared with the 1924 poll.

Thus the bourgeois parties find themselves in a defensive position in an effort to drive an equitable bargain with the radicals in the event the latter decide to accept President Von Hindenburg's commission to organize a new government.

More than 30,000,000 votes were cast. The Socialists won 153 seats, as compared with 131 in the previous elections, while the Communists captured fifty-four seats, as against forty-five in 1924. The Nationalists suffered a heavy blow, dropping thirty-eight seats, while the German People's party, of which Dr. Gustav Stresemann, the Foreign Secretary, is the most notable representative, fell from fifty-one to forty-four in point of mandates.

Since the new Reichstag must be convened within thirty days, negotiations between the parties for the formation of the new Cabinet will be undertaken early in June. A so-called big coalition, extending from the Socialists to the right to the Nationalists, is deemed the only available solution in the existing party line-up.

Park Lands Bill Off Consent List

WASHINGTON, May 21. (Exclusive)—At the request of its author, the House today removed from the consent calendar a bill by Representative Englebright of California providing for exchange of lands within Lassen National Forest for lands of equal value outside the park, and the setting of timber from the lands thus relinquished by the government. The action indefinitely postpones consideration of the measure.

The purpose, Englebright announced, is to give the Forest Service an opportunity to work out a policy that will prevent cutting of timber for private gain, and through purchase of privately owned timber within the forest. An effort now is being made to put such policy into operation in Yosemite.

ABORIGINE EXPOUNDS THEOLOGY

Jackrabbit's Story of Creation Disposes of Controversial Basis of Fundamentalism and Evolutionism Alike; Details Scorned by Indian Sage

BERKELEY, May 21. (Exclusive)—Both the Fundamentalists and Modernists are wrong, according to Jackrabbit.

Jackrabbit, it should be explained, is an Akwa's Indian of Baja California and he put a neat spike into the present theories of creation in a conversation with Dr. E. W. Gifford, curator of the University of California museum of anthropology, and Prof. R. H. Lowe of the same department.

LINGUISTIC DIFFICULTY
Jackrabbit went to some difficulty to get this matter straightened out, as it was necessary for him to talk Akwa's to a Coconino Indian who could translate it into Yuma dialect so a Yuma brave could twist it into English for the benefit of the professors.

However, it finally was accomplished. Jackrabbit said that in the beginning there were two men who were swimming under water. One came up and as he did so the earth came up after him. The other swimmer opened his eyes too soon and the salt water made him blind, but the one who kept his eyes—shut long enough, found himself a flock of land. He was Mitips.

BREEDING TROUBLE
Inasmuch as it behooved Mitips to get the cosmic scheme of things in operation, he decided he'd need a bit of help as he made four men and eight women. He gave two women to each man, thus assuring himself that each man would have plenty to do.

Then Mitips made a moon, which he first showed his helpers and then jumped up into the western sky and hung it there. That done, he made a sun, held that in the palm of his hand to show that all is not gold, etc., and hung that in the eastern sky.

And that, said Jackrabbit, was how things got going.

It is presumed that a few little matters got jammed up in the wheels of translation, as the university authorities do not tell how Jackrabbit explained where the two swimming men came from in the first place, nor how Mitips made his people.

Second Knapp Trial Begins

ALBANY (N. Y.), May 21. (P)—Mrs. Florence E. Knapp, first woman ever elected to public office by a State-wide vote in New York, today went on trial for the second time within a month for the asserted larceny of a $287.00 State census pay check while she was Secretary of State in 1923.

The first trial resulted in a disagreement.

PARDON COMES DOZEN YEARS AFTER LIBERTY

SACRAMENTO, May 21. (Exclusive)—Gov. Young today issued a pardon to a man who was discharged from San Quentin prison more than a dozen years ago. He is Peter Derichs, a Bavarian, convicted of second-degree robbery in Contra Costa county in 1913, who sought his rehabilitation so that he might become a naturalized American. Derichs now is a resident of Arkansas, where he is a registered pharmacist.

STEWART LATE WITH ANSWERS

Court Orders Standard Oil Official to Trial

Refusal to Reply to Queries Declared Unlawful

Tardy Compliance Fails to Avert Prosecution

WASHINGTON, May 21. (P)—The District of Columbia Supreme Court ruled today that Robert W. Stewart, chairman of the board of the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, must stand trial on a charge of refusing to answer questions propounded by the Senate Trusts Dome committee.

Justice Suddens upheld a demurrer filed by the government against Stewart's petition to have the case thrown out of court since the oil man subsequently answered the questions of the committee. Justice Suddens held that the action of Stewart in answering on April 24 questions he had refused to answer February 3 and 5, did not clear him of the charge of violating Sec. 102 of the Criminal Code. It was expected the justices would set a date for Stewart's trial late today.

A Few Features of the Pierce-Arrow CLUB BROUGHAM

The body is full aluminum on a framework of Northern White Ash.

The upholstery is soft plush, and the carpets are of velvet.

The rear seat is widely luxurious—ample for three people.

The fittings are, finely plated silver hardware, toggle grips, smoking and vanity case, foot rest and dome light.

The instrument panel is silver plated, brilliantly lighted, and beautifully displays speedometer, gasoline gauge, engine temperature gauge, clock and other instruments.

The fender headlamps are of new and striking design, supplemented by two small auxiliary lamps, midway between the fenders. (Bracket headlamps optional, without charge).

The engine is the famous high-compression type by Pierce-Arrow. It develops 75 horse-power, and travels 14 to 17 miles on a gallon of gasoline.

Make no mistake about this offering: It can be overlooked only at a sacrifice of hundreds of dollars—that is, if you care about driving the finest of motor cars.

The new Club Brougham is every inch a Pierce-Arrow—the most coveted automobile in America.

Aristocratic, from the visor of its fender headlamps to the graceful streamlined apron which masks the gasoline tank at rear.

New and sparkling of line, rich in color combinations, and modish as a Parisian gown.

Built of such quality materials—with such fine handwork precision—that not an ounce of excess weight retards its magical getaway, its thoroughbred fleetness.

And, because of its fine watch-like construction, it is wonderfully easy to handle, remarkably economical of maintenance.

Its lightness of weight means corresponding lightness of fuel and oil consumption—and substantial savings on tires.

Every modern device for fine motor cars is included in the new Brougham's regular equipment. Ordinarily, these would cost an additional several hundred dollars.

For example, there are Houdaille Shock Absorbers all around. A commodious trunk on rear. And six-ply balloon tires which last about twice as long as the ordinary.

The chassis lubrication system lubricates all vital points at one time by the single pressure of a foot plunger.

VOTES OF TEXAS
AT STAKE TODAY

Democrats Will Open State Convention at Beaumont

Harmonyites, Led by Moody,
Oppose Anti-Smiths

Former Faction Promises to Control Meeting

DALLAS (Tex.) May 21. (AP)—With Texas' forty votes at the Democratic national convention at stake, lines are drawn tonight for a sharp battle at the Democratic State convention at Beaumont tomorrow, the outcome of which will have an important bearing on the Presidential candidacy of Gov. Smith of New York.

The Republican forces of the State are gathered in Dallas, with indications that tomorrow's convention will elect a delegation of twenty-six to the Kansas City convention instructed for Herbert Hoover. The right of this delegation to represent the State will be contested at the national convention by a group of untrusted delegates chosen several weeks ago at Congress district conventions.

TWO FACTIONS EXIST

Ranged on opposing sides at Beaumont are a group of delegates led by Gov. Moody, known as "harmony" Democrats, who favor an un-instructed delegation to the Houston convention so far as Presidential candidates are concerned, and another faction, calling themselves "constitutional" Democrats, who demand instructions against Gov. Smith and other candidates classed by them as wet.

Leaders of the "harmony" faction declare they control enough delegates to carry through their program tomorrow, but this is not conceded by their opponents.

The "constitutional" Democrats are ultra dry and charge that Gov. Moody and his followers are working secretly for the New York executive. The "harmony" faction demands only a prohibition plank in the national platform of the party and is willing to accept a nominee pledged to law enforcement. Gov. Moody has voiced his opposition to the nomination of Smith, but has announced he will support Smith or whoever else becomes the nominee.

At a session of the State executive committee today the "harmony" group failed in an attempt to rule out delegations to tomorrow's convention which have not taken a pledge to support the ticket named at Houston in June. This move was directed at ultra-dry who have intimated they may not vote for Smith in November if he becomes the party standard-bearer. D. W. Wilcox, chairman of the executive committee, ruled that contests will be considered only when protests have been filed before the names of delegates are submitted for entry on the temporary rolls.

DRY NAMED CHAIRMAN

Only a few of the delegates to the State convention carry instructions to support the election of a national delegation pledged to Gov. Smith. The "harmonyites" surprised their opponents when, after a caucus, they endorsed W. L. Dean of Huntsville, an ardent prohibitionist and author of Texas' stringent prohibition law, as temporary chairman of the convention.

The so-called regular Republican organization's executive committee meeting here today showed a consistent majority of 29 to 2 for Hoover. Representative Harry M. Wurzbach, the only Republican Congressman from Texas, a leader of the faction favoring an un-instructed delegation, was denied a seat on the executive committee by a vote of 24 to 6.

Prediction are made freely that the faction favoring an un-instructed delegation will hold a separate meeting to choose four delegates at large.

The faction led by R. B. Creager, National Commissioner, announced plans for electing a full delegation of twenty-six pledged to the Secretary of Commerce.

It will be up to the contest committee of the national convention to decide which delegation was regularly elected.

MEKICO CITY, May 21. (Exclusive)—Representations were made today to the Foreign Office by the United States Embassy in connection with the death of Joseph Clark, mine mill superintendent at Combarere, State of Zacatecas, on April 13, last. Clark was attacked and stabbed by a Mexican employee. Proper investigation and punishment are requested by the Embassy.

Press dispatches from Tampico relate the death of F. F. Nulien, field superintendent of one of the oil companies, who was shot dead by one of his workmen yesterday. These dispatches also state that no trace has been found of those guilty of killing an official of the United Oil Company named Wilson near Tampico on Saturday, when the automobile in which he was driving apparently was snatched and money and valuables he carried with him were stolen.

SACRAMENTO, May 21. (Exclusive)—That the development of flood-control works in connection with the State-wide co-ordinated water-conservation plan may force the State of California into the power business because of the related and interlocking features of the two projects was the opinion expressed today by A. R. Heron, State Director of Finance.

The finance head also raised the question whether projects of the co-ordinated plan should be financed beyond the sum which may be realized from the sale of hydroelectric energy generated at the dam.

BY LEE SHIPPEY

I'M ALWAYS interested when I meet some fellow who is loud in denouncing the hypocrisy of the churchgoers. I encourage him to talk, to find out what he believes in. Usually I find he doesn't believe in anything except the sincerity of some professional cynic who makes money out of his cynicism, or the absolute integrity of a bootlegger or two. He is a simple-minded fellow who thinks a preacher is swayed wholly by mercenary motives because he gets $3000 a year for being a minister, but cannot impute any but the noblest motives to a man who writes a book denouncing the ministers and makes $100,000 out of it. He is ready to stake his life that every member of the dry-enforcement squad makes a business of selling confiscated liquor, because he got it from a reliable authority—his bootlegger whisperer to him. When he goes blind from drinking "old peppy stuff" he thinks his simple, trusting bootlegger has merely made a mistake.

Yea, Palomine. It is the nature of man to have to believe in some sort of spiritual leader; and the funny thing is that some of us think we are very original and independent minded when we refuse to believe in those who would lead us toward decency, and believe passionately in those who would lead us away from it.

DAWES HAS FIRST SENATE VOTE

Chamber Cheers as Presiding Officer Utilizes Chance to Break Tie in Roll Call and Thereby Win Tax Bill Victory for Republicans

WASHINGTON, May 21. (AP)—Vice-President Dawes cast his first vote, breaking a tie, in the Senate tonight and won a round of applause from the Senate for it.

It was done so quickly, in fact, that for a moment the Senate did not seem to understand the situation, but as it realized that Mr. Dawes had voted for the first time a roar of applause arose. The vote gave the Republicans an important victory in the tax fight with the Democrats. The vote was 34 to 33, in favor of the amendment to the tax bill for lower rates on small corporations, but reconsideration was obtained. The clerk handed the result to Mr. Dawes.

The vote is thirty-three for the amendment and thirty-three against it, he declared, and then in the same breath, "and the presiding officer votes no. The amendment is lost."

There is the amount of reductions all along the line. The Republican Independents were not anxious for any tax cut at this season, but the application of surpluses to the retirement of the public debt and for that reason lined up for the smaller reduction program. To win support of the independent Republicans, the House and Senate bills.

Under the leadership of the veteran Senator Simmons of North Carolina, ranking member of the Finance Committee, the Democrats nevertheless succeeded temporarily in getting one plank of their $325,000,000 program into the bill—the provision for graduated rates on corporations with small incomes.

WIN FINAL DRIVE However, Republicans realized their forces tonight for a final drive against this proposal which also was in the House bill.

On the first vote tonight, the result was 34 to 33, in favor of retaining the Democratic provisions. Senator McDermott, Republican of South Dakota, was the only member of either party to leave his party ranks on the vote, going with the Democrats and giving them the margin of victory.

But after the vote was announced, Senator Nye, Republican of North Dakota, asked Senator Blaine, Democrat of South Carolina, if he was not paired with Senator Fraser, Republican of North Dakota, who was absent. Senator Blaine had voted. Blaine replied he did not understand the pair applied on this vote.

Some time later, however, Blaine announced that in view of the misunderstanding he was willing for another vote to be taken. He did not vote this time, but Blaine, Republican of Wisconsin, who previously voted with the Republicans, went over to the Democrats. This resulted in a 34-to-33 vote in favor of the Democrats, but before the result could be announced, Blaine obtained the floor and declared that he had voted under a misunderstanding, misunderstanding the purpose of the roll call. He changed his vote and the 33-to-34 tie resulted.

Quick as a flash, Vice-President Dawes announced his vote in the negative and the Republicans were victorious.

More of the day was spent in discussion of tariff and farm-relief riders, but these were overwhelmingly rejected with Democratic opposition declaring against any "riders" which might threaten final enactment into law of a tax-reduction bill.

AGAIN SIMMONS LOSES Senator Simmons also was defeated, 34 to 33, on his proposal to modify the debt retirement program by applying payments received on account of war debts to the sinking fund, from which the national debt is paid.

In the closing hour, Senator Reed, Republican, Pennsylvania, obtained an amendment, 35 to 27, placing the insurance companies under the same rules and regulations with respect to taxes as other insurance companies. However, an attempt by Senator McDermott to get a tax of 5 cents on each $100 call loan was defeated, 43 to 13.

LOS ANGELES TO PLAZA STATION SEEK MANDATE

Will Carry Union Station Federal Commission Says it Should Be Built

District Supreme Court to Receive Appeal Alternate Arcade Terminal Proposal Dismissed

Commerce Commission Rule Espee Ordered to Abandon to Railways Asked Service on Alameda

(Continued from First Page) build the Plaza-area union terminal. The commission in its decision takes the position that it has not this right under the law of requiring the railroads to build and use the union depot. The commission evidently believes that it only has the power to grant application for permits asked for by the railroads. The commission said that if the railroads asked for a permit to build and use the Plaza area district union depot, the permit would be granted.

"With the commission's view of the law the city takes issue. The commission's decision clears the way for an application by the city of Los Angeles in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia for a writ of mandamus to compel the Interstate Commerce Commission to issue an order requiring the railroads to build the union depot. Whether the city wins this mandamus action or not, the case will go to the Supreme Court for a decision as to the Federal Commission's right to require the railroads to build a union station.

CONFIDENT OF VICTORY "I am confident that the city of Los Angeles will win in the Supreme Court for the reason that, when the Railroad Commission appealed to the court to test the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the court indicated that its opinion the ultimate power over the railroads was in the hands of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Apparently the Federal Commission is not willing to take this final step of requiring the railroads to build the Plaza district union depot until the Supreme Court has definitely ruled as to the commission's authority.

EARLIER HOLDING "The Interstate Commerce Commission in 1923 held that public convenience and necessity required the construction of the Plaza district union railroad passenger terminal. Again the commission has ruled in favor of the depot in its decision just announced from Washington.

"On the facts the city and the commission are one for the union depot. On the other hand, the commission and the city differ, but with a favorable decision from the Supreme Court on the commission's authority the battle will be over.

"The court decision will be of importance throughout the United States as showing that there is an official board representing the people which has the power to require the railroads to put in improvements for the public benefit. The commission's decision opens the door for the city to obtain a court decision in the depot case that will be of national importance in strengthening the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission."

RAILWAYS POSITION The following statement was issued today jointly by D. W. Pontius, vice-president and general manager, Pacific Electric; T. H. Williams, assistant general manager, Southern Pacific; F. H. Knickerbocker, general manager, Union Pacific; and W. E. Ritter, general manager, Coast Lines of Santa Fe.

"From the press dispatches in respect to the Interstate Commerce Commission decision in the Plaza depot case, it would appear that the commission has reaffirmed its former decision to the effect, at least, that it has no jurisdiction to order the railroads to construct a union station at the Plaza or any other point.

"If this is a fact, it means that the application of the city of Los Angeles has been denied. The press dispatches relative to the matter of certificates of public convenience, etc., are not fairly clear to our lawyers and they have stated that they do not care to express any opinion as to the full scope of the order until the text has been received."

DEATH RIDES IN WAR-GAS FOGS (Continued from First Page) themselves, forced by their calling to the thick of the danger and insufficiently protected by their smoke masks.

CITY IN PANIC As word of the fumes penetrated other districts the entire city became terror-stricken, fearful lest a few shifts in the wind would carry the deadly cloud over the more populous districts. It became known that during the night the fumes had crept into the houses and had crept through open windows and interstices of houses and had stricken inhabitants in their beds. And then the rain.

What was at first a shower assumed more copious proportions, and as it continued those in charge of the combat hoped the atmosphere might absorb without harm to the populace.

Phosgene poisoning causes a pernicious purulent inflammation of the lungs and in cases where consciousness is retained causes a most painful and horrible death.

GENEVA ABUZZ OVER GERMAN GAS LEAK GENEVA, May 21. (AP)—Disclosure of stores of phosgene gas at Hamburg, Germany, set League of Nations circles abuzz late today. It was pointed out here that Germany under the Treaty of Versailles is forbidden either use, manufacture, import or store of any kind of poison gases, and that under ordinary circumstances—only the least comprehensive reports have been received here—such stores as caused the Hamburg deaths should not have existed.

Investigation, if investigation there is to be, is strictly the League's concern, it is said, inasmuch as the international control of German armaments passed in January, 1927, to the League of Nations.

WHERE TO GET IT Been wondering where to buy this thing or that? Glance over the interesting list of articles and services that appears today and every Monday in The Times, under "Where to Find Things."

Attorney Stephens of Los Angeles and described the latter's summary of the present situation as one "both fair and accurate."

"One important point is to be remembered in connection with the union terminal matter," he said. "It is that there is an order on file from the State Railroad Commission calling on the railroads involved to abandon the tracks at issue and to construct the union passenger terminal."

"Now that the Interstate Commerce Commission denies its own jurisdiction in the matter, the way is clear to test this point in the courts. It is the logical thing for Los Angeles to institute proceedings in the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, which is a Federal court, to have this matter settled."

EITHER MAY APPEAL "Which ever way the ruling goes, one or the other party to the litigation naturally will appeal to the United States Supreme Court. With a decision from that tribunal the fight will have been completed."

"In sustaining the merits of the city's contention, the Interstate Commerce Commission has taken action which is of great importance from the standpoint of the city."

"It is not amiss to emphasize that the State Railroad Commission twice has upheld the city on its merits and this is the second time the Interstate Commerce Commission has done so."

CHANGE IN CONTROL OF BANK PENDING

People's National Due to Pass Into Hands of Group of Local Business Men

Negotiations which have been pending for some time and which will, it is understood, effect a complete change in the control and management of the People's National Bank have been completed, and it is expected that the new plan under which the bank will pass into the hands of a strong group of local business men will be approved at a meeting of the bank's stockholders to be held this afternoon.

While details of the transaction were not learned yesterday, it is understood that the bank will be taken over by financial interests headed by E. L. Lof, and that Mr. Lof will become president of the institution. The plan of reorganization also calls for the election of a complete new board of directors, it is understood, and the personnel of the new board will be composed of men prominent in business and commercial activities of the city.

The bank, which was established about five years ago, has present resources of approximately $400,000. A modern high-limit building to house the institution is now under construction at 477-30 South Hill street, a few doors south of the bank's present location. Possession of the new quarters will be taken about July 1.

American Motors Transportation Company has been incorporated under the laws of Delaware for the purpose of acquiring all the capital stock of the California Motor Transit Company. In connection with this financing the company will also acquire controlling interest in a holding company which is being formed to take over operating rights and facilities of established motor-stage routes in a number of Middle Western and Eastern States. When the new company is completed, it will operate a service connecting all major Coast cities and all large eastern cities. This will be the first transit company to operate transcontinental motor services under one management, the bankers state.

Other offerings include bonds and debentures of the Lincoln Building, New York City; notes of the newly formed Associated Dyeing and Printing Corporation; and a municipal loan of the City of Frankfurt-on-Main, Germany.

Pacific Mutual Life Issue Up

Commenting on the spectacular advance of 40 points in the stock of the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, which opened at 80 and closed at 120 yesterday on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange, George I. Cochran, president, stated that, in his opinion, traders are just beginning to realize the possibilities of life-insurance stock as an investment, and that Pacific Mutual has been selling far out of line with other insurance stocks.

Mr. Cochran attributed the rise, in part, to the fact that there are only 20,000 shares outstanding, most of which is closely held. Earnings for the quarter, he added, are running about the same as last year. He stated neither a split-up of the stock nor an increased dividend rate is being considered.

New Brokerage House to Open

SUGAR EXPERT CALLED BACK

S. W. Sinsheimer Returns to Head Company With Which He First Landed; Wins Important Post

Nearly thirty years ago Sidney W. Sinsheimer of San Luis Obispo decided to cast his fortunes with the beet-sugar industry. How well he succeeded was told in the terse announcement yesterday of his election to the presidency of the American Beet Sugar Company, a post of national-wide prominence.

In the years that have elapsed since his graduation from the University of California, Mr. Sinsheimer has become known as one of the outstanding engineers in the sugar industry. He has served two companies, American Beet Sugar and Holly Sugar, and to the former, his first connection on leaving the university, he now returns at the request of the board of directors.

His first job of importance with American Beet Sugar was the construction of the beet-sugar factory at Chino. Since that time he has built sugar factories in all parts of the country, including the Rocky Ford plant in Colorado for American Beet Sugar, and a number of others for the Holly Sugar Corporation, the company from which he was resigned.

In 1908 he joined Holly Sugar as general superintendent in charge of construction. While occupying this position he supervised the construction of sugar factories in California, Colorado, Wyoming and Montana. In 1912 he was made vice-president, and in this capacity he has largely directed the operations of the Holly Sugar Corporation, the second largest beet-sugar company in America.

American Beet Sugar of late years has lost, in some respects, the position it once held in the beet-sugar industry, partly due to increased competition and partly due to the vicissitudes through which the beet-sugar companies have passed. Last year American Beet and Utah-Idaho ranked together in third place with production of about 1,000,000 tons, compared with 2,000,000 for Holly Sugar and 10,000,000 for Great Western Sugar. Under the management of S. W. Sinsheimer, it is expected that the company will materially increase its output in the next few years.

Although he has resigned as vice-president of Holly Sugar Corporation, Sinsheimer is expected to retain his interest in the other Holly enterprises. He is president of the Holly Development Company, vice-president of the Holly Oil Company, two organizations active in the California petroleum industry. The former has leases on oil lands in the San Joaquin, Coyote, and in other fields. The latter company was organized to develop acreage on which the sugar factory at Huntington Beach was located.

Oil discoveries, in fact, have interested in numerous instances with the beet-sugar industry. Beet-sugar companies, but generally have increased profits. American Beet Sugar owns 4400 acres at Chino on which oil explorations have been carried on from time to time.

While operations of American Beet Sugar are located in the States of Colorado, Minnesota and Nebraska, the company is still largely interested in this State at Oxnard, not far from where Sinsheimer is expected to become vice-president in charge of the American National Company, investment subsidiary of the American Trust Company of San Francisco.

Municipal Bond Issues Up Soon

Income for Quarter of Diamond Electric Set at 50 Cents a Share

With earnings of the Diamond Electric Company for the first three months of the current year equivalent to 50 cents a share, as against dividend requirements of 35 cents a share, it is expected that directors of the company will declare an extra dividend of 15 cents a share at the next meeting to be held early in June, officials of the company declared yesterday.

London Daily Radio

(Copyright, 1936, New York Radio, Inc.)
LONDON, May 21. (By wire)—The market was steady, but quiet, today with speculative interest confined to ease slightly because, although the new account is just begun, it runs for three weeks with a minimum of activity in the middle, which is an adverse factor.

Gramophones were easier on realizations. Investments were good, however, and the subscription lists for the London County Council loan of £10,000,000 were closed soon after their opening. Oils have been good, but are easing now.

It was officially stated that a leading firm of stock brokers in the United States has underwritten an issue of preference shares by Cross & Russell, placing the company in a sound financial position. It enables the company to liquidate liabilities to the parent company in London, leaving it with adequate working capital.

TREASURY MAY SHIFT PLAN

Change Forecast in Refunding Program for September
Maturities as Money Rate Rises

NEW YORK, May 21.—A shift in the Treasury's plan for refunding its September maturities is possible in view of the tightening effect of money and the higher discount rate, but the recent change presents no very serious obstacle to government financing.

The Kraft-Phenix company owns and operates cheese factories, dairies and cold-storage plants from California to New York and Wisconsin to Georgia, as well as in Canada, England and Australia. Recently it opened a number of new factories in the South.

Grain Futures
Ease Off After Opening Rally

CHICAGO, May 21. (Exclusive)—Grain markets showed an easier undertone, and while there was a strong rally at one time, corn started to decline toward the low and carried wheat and oats off with it. The finish was about the bottom, with net losses of 1/4 cent on wheat, 1/4 cent on corn, and 1/4 cent on oats. The close was unchanged to 1/4 cent lower on wheat.

A new order of operation was inaugurated with dry weather prevailing in the American and Canadian Northwest, while further rains fell over the week-end and a rally made as a result of short covering on reports of frost at various points in South Dakota and Nebraska, and on a decrease of 3,176,000 bushels in the visible supply, failed to hold. Prices had a respite of 1/4 cent for the day. There was little in the foreign situation that attracted attention, with Liverpool wheat unchanged to 1/4 cent higher at the last. Corn in the Punjab district in India is efficiently estimated at 18,000,000 bushels under the primary returns and is 12,000,000

mand at the seaboard was slow and sales of 200,000 bushels were reported in all positions. Foreign crop cables were generally pessimistic. Winnipeg acted heavy a good part of the day and closed 1/4 cent lower. Total domestic visible supply is 54,092,000 bushels, against 30,711,000 bushels last year.

Each crop situation was regarded as strong, and with a fair run of communication-house and local buying early, prices advanced readily, but the upturn was short-lived, as the technical position was weakened and a break of 1/4 cent from the high point of the week when selling orders appeared. Weather conditions were excellent for the new crop and private traders generally claimed that planting had made rapid progress and that the crop was coming up to a good stand.

Visible supply decreased 3,000,000 bushels for the week and to 53,111,000 bushels, against 31,322,000 bushels last year. The July-September spread narrowed as the result of spreading operations, and there was also local pressure on the September contract. May oats sold tight and prices advanced slightly, while the September was weak to a wider discount under the July.

Trade was not large and the market easier, influenced the late decline in the deferred deliveries, being in sympathy with corn. Visible supply decreased 994,

000 bushels for the week and to 7,603,000 bushels, against 52,843,000 bushels last year. Action of rye was dominated largely by that of wheat, but trade was not large.

Aids from fair selling of July and

September led by houses with eastern and foreign connections at the start, there was little interest in the market.

Trade broke 100-200, which created indifference among speculators. At the close, the market was 1/4 cent lower, with wheat and bellies unchanged.

GENERAL DRIFT ON MART DOWN

as General Motors, American Telephone, United States Steel common, Montgomery-Ward, American Can, Coca Cola, Fox Film A, Otis Elevators and Victor Talking Machines lost 1 3-4 to 2 1/4 points.

NEW HIGHS SCORED

New peak prices for the year or longer were registered in the early trading by about a dozen issues, including American Bosch Magnet American Brown Boveri issues, American Beet Sugar preferred, Atlantic Gulf and West Indies, Inspiration Copper and Marlin Rockwell.

The Interstate Commerce Commission decision approving acquisition of the Pere Marquette and Hocking Valley by Chesapeake and Ohio, but denying inclusion of the Erie, apparently proved disappointing to Wall Street. Chesapeake and Ohio broke 7 points to 198. Pere Marquette 6 to 140 and Erie common 3 1-4 to 56 1/2. New York Central slumped about 6 points and Lehigh Valley, Reading, Canadian Pacific and Delaware and Hudson fell 2 1/2 to 3 1/2, the last named losing an Reactionary price tendencies also predominated in the commodity markets but losses were small, cotton closing 4 to 7 points net lower and wheat down about a cent a bushel.

With exception of a further break of 15 points in Japanese yen to $6.15 cents the leading foreign exchanges moved within narrow and irregular limits. Sterling cables held steady around $4.88 9-32.

A Plain
Statement of the Facts

Major John F. Duling, conservative mining engineer and successful operator who will personally supervise the operations of Mineral Mines, Inc., says:

"In my many years of mine examination and evaluation work over the western states and Mexico, McFarland Gulch is the highest grade and has the most favorable operating conditions of any placer property I have in-vested."

Values have been carefully and conscientiously ascertained. The mine will be conservatively and efficiently managed. The investment of stock which finances it is only a fraction of what its resources would reasonably warrant.

MANAGEMENT

NUMBERS ONE OF A SERIES

Before investing in public utility securities, consider the management of the concern. Is the management of the public utility company in the hands of capable and experienced men?

The management of the Southern California Edison Company is vested in

Mr. JOHN B. MILLER, Chairman
30 years President and Chairman.

Mr. R. H. BALLARD, President
31 years service with this company and predecessor companies.

Mr. GEORGE C. WARD, Executive Vice-President
17 years service with this company in charge of its great engineering projects. Nationally known for engineering achievements.

These executives at the head of this company, as well as the many departmental heads, have come up through the ranks, earning every promotion by hard work and an understanding of the job each had to do.

Under these experienced leaders, the Edison Company has grown from a small "Lighting" company to its present outstanding position in the electric utility world, in less than one generation.

MARCO LOSES LIQUOR APPEAL

Circuit Court Rules He Must Serve Jail Sentence
Asserted Underworld Boss Given Six Months
Shorter Penalty Affirmed for Associate, Bruno

The United States Circuit Court of Appeals in San Francisco yesterday affirmed the conviction of Albert Marco, asserted underworld boss and cafe operator, and his associate, Antonio Bruno, on charges of possession and sale of liquor growing out of a raid by Federal authorities at the North End Pleasure Club, 1304 South Spring street.

The affirmation of the conviction gained by Asst. U. S. Atty. Armstrong, November 18, 1927, indicates that Marco must serve six months in jail, as his sentence imposed, and Bruno thirty days. In addition Marco is fined $1000 and Bruno $500.

Although the conviction is affirmed, Mr. Armstrong explains, thirty days must elapse under the law before the mandate of the higher court is received here upon which warrants for the arrest of the asserted underworld characters must be based. Marco and Bruno appealed on the grounds of insufficient evidence and misconduct by the trial jury.

Marco was asserted by Mr. Armstrong to have been one of the officials of the North End Pleasure Club. From the witness stand Marco denied that he was connected with the club other than holding a membership card. He admitted, however, that he had a desk and a telephone there.

Both Marco and Bruno were arrested in July, 1927, by Federal prohibition agents in a raid on the club headquarters. Several bottles of liquor were found behind the bar and the raiding officers testified Marco and Bruno were in bartender attire behind the mahogany shelf.

Both are at liberty on $10,000 bonds each.

Vote Urged on City Purchase of Red Lines

That a proposal for the city to purchase the Los Angeles line of the Pacific Electric Railway be placed before the voters is the recommendation filed with the City Council yesterday by the United Northwest Civic Organization, of which Greely Koller is president.

The properties would be paid for by a city-wide bond issue, according to the association plan, and the lines operated by the city.

The Pacific Electric properties included in the proposal are the Hollywood Boulevard, Santa Monica Boulevard, Echo Park, Edendale, West, and South Pasadena lines.

The plan, as set forth by the association, provides for universal transfer between the red and yellow car lines, and also recommends a municipal rapid-transit line to the San Fernando Valley to connect with the Pacific Electric's present line at Alhambra.

The Council referred the proposition to its Public Utilities Committee.

WATCHES AT STUDIO TICK OFF HISTORY

Combined Age of Antique Timepieces in Property Room 6890 Years

Six thousand eight hundred and ninety years of ticking! That's the record established by the contents of four drawers in the wardrobe department of the Paramount studios.

These drawers are given over to ancient watches which are used in the making of pictures. They have been gathered from all parts of the world during the past fifteen years.

There are 121 of these antique and all of them are in perfect working order.

Of men's watches there are forty-three silver and twenty gold ones. These are augmented by forty-two silver and sixteen gold watches for women. The men's collection contains one 150 years old, six 100 years old, seventeen more than seventy-five years old, twenty-one which are sixty years old and sixteen used for forty-five years or more.

The assortment of women's watches includes one 150-year-old article, three 100 years, eleven more than seventy-five years old, sixteen made sixty years ago, eight fifty-year-old watches and nineteen which are forty years old.

The two 150-year-old watches are the prizes of the collection. One is a Swiss Chasteline watch worn at the belt. It is shaped like a marble, being perfectly round and solid concave glass in front and back which serves to magnify face and works. It is wound by a tiny key which hangs from the jeweled belt clasp.

The other is a P. Viabach key-wind man's watch of silver. The face is carved and the entire watch lies in an egg-shaped cover which can be slipped off. The face has Roman figures for the hours and Arabic numerals for the minutes.

KEYES DELAYS MURRAY CASE

Inquiry in 'Frame-up' Charge Goes Over for Day
Government Refuses to Take Up Mann Act Angle

Spreckels Reported to Have Employed Attorney

Investigation of the charges of Mrs. Hertha Murray, San Francisco divorcee, that she was a victim of a "frame-up" caused by her friendship with Claus Spreckels, San Diego financier, when she was arrested and detained by detective officers who were to be her sanity, will be delayed until the completion of the Julian arguments. It was announced by Dist. Atty. Keyes yesterday.

Keyes will close the Julian arguments this morning and inform representatives of Mrs. Murray that he will consider the accusations from all angles tomorrow morning. Further action in the case rests with the decision of the District Attorney, as it was announced from the Department of Justice in San Francisco yesterday that there would be no inquiry of violation of the Mann Act, over charges by Mrs. Murray that the accused Spreckels from New York to San Francisco.

FULL REPORT FILED
A full report of the details surrounding the arrest of Mrs. Murray at a downtown hotel, her detention in the psychiatric ward of the General Hospital and the dismissal of the complaint by Superior Judge Gould, after criticizing the arresting officers, was filed with George Contreras, chief of detectives for the District Attorney yesterday and will be available tomorrow for the conference, together with other information covering the asserted romance and the charges of missing rings and lost letters.

Indications that the entire case would be dropped by the officials following the trial of a claim in which were evident yesterday following the announcement from the Federal authorities in declaring that a "hand-off" will be observed by the United States government in its investigation of Mann Act charges.

This case, announced George M. Naus, assistant United States District Attorney, "is of a claim in which prosecution should not be encouraged because of the possible abuse to which the statute can be put. The Kauba-Spreckels case is closed so far as I am concerned."

Naus issued the statement immediately after he had announced that Herbert Clark, reported to have been retained by Spreckels and person in the case, had requested a conference with him.

ATTORNEY HAS CONFERENCE
Coinciding with the announcement from San Francisco came the report here that Clifford L. Russell, San Francisco attorney and person in counsel for Mrs. Elizabeth Kauba, mother of the divorcee, had conferred with Naus. Kauba over such assistance as he should be able to obtain before the Federal authorities.

According to Attorney Ray, representing Mrs. Murray, Russell is not called to Los Angeles over the case but is here attending the State convocation of the Knights of Columbus which is being given at the Elks' Temple, tendered his services. If they should be required.

In further clarifying the position of the government authorities in declining to investigate the case, Attorney Naus said:

"The Department of Justice has for several years reposed a broad discretion in the United States district attorneys with respect to prosecution under the Mann Act. In the present case I have no reason to doubt the integrity of the report given by or in behalf of the lady concerned. But while this office is ready to vigorously and promptly proceed in any case within the spirit and purpose of the statute, it is just as ready to guard that statute from abuse."

BAN ON CEMENT PLANT PUSHED

dall. "That the rock deposits are worth $250,000,000. All right, what about the millions of dollars invested and to be invested in the near by University of California at Los Angeles, Occidental College, the Botanic Gardens and the $500,000,000 invested in homes and sites for homes in this area? The cement plant at Riverside scattered over five miles, and it has cost the owners of the plant more than $1,000,000 to purchase near-by or-ganized groves and other properties which were being destroyed by the dust and fumes from the plant."

INSPECTION PLANNED
The Council finally decided that Councilman Randall meant well but was "rushing things," so his resolution was sent to the City Planning Committee. The Councilman agreed to accept an invitation of the Sewell branch of the Chamber of Commerce to inspect the proposed plant and quarry sites in Fulea and Santa Ynez canyons next Friday afternoon.

Protests against the granting of the permit continue to be filed with the City Council, the latest being from the Santa Monica-Ocean Park Chamber of Commerce. This protest was signed by President O. J. Fehlig and Secretary M. C. McKenny and declared the industrial zoning permits should be denied and said the plants would ruin the "exclusive residential section."

Another protest came in the form of a resolution from the Planning Commission of Santa Monica, protesting against favorable action on the application by the City Council. The action was taken yesterday and the formal protest forwarded to Mayor Croyer was signed by T. H. Dudley, president of the commission and Harry Strangman, secretary.

The Texas-Ford plane is equipped to carry twelve passengers. It is powered with a Pratt-Whitney Wasp engine and two Wright Whirling motors. It was purchased and put in service to test Texaco aviation petroleum products and to assist in further acquainting the public with the unlimited possibilities of air transportation.

DAILY NEWS AND CHIEFS FACE COURT

Complaints Filed Charging Race-Chart Publication in Violation of City Law

Issued on orders of Chief Deputy City Prosecutor Concanon, a complaint charging the Los Angeles Daily Illustrated News, Inc., with printing a racing-form chart in violation of the city ordinance, was drawn up yesterday by Deputy Prosecutor Coultas.

In addition to the corporation, the complaint included as defendants E. Manchester Boddy, publisher of the local tabloid and Joel Rickman, its city editor.

Before Municipal Judge Leonard Wilson at 2 p. m. an hour after court usually closes, the defendants pleaded not guilty to the charge and demanded a jury trial, which will be set today by Judge Sheldon in the jury division. Judge Wilson ordered the men released on their own recognizance. As for the publishing company, the 25th inst. was set down as the final day to answer the complaint. Deputy City Prosecutor Barnes represented the City Prosecutor's office at the arraignment.

Boddy apprised the court that five other local publishing companies had printed forms charts relative to the Kentucky Derby, stating they too should be named in the complaint. He denied he will call the matter to the attention of City Prosecutor Lickley.

Sergeants C. D. Hoy and Ellis Bowers of the police vice-squad in charge of the details on gambling, were cited as witnesses for the prosecution, the former having signed the complaint.

The complaint was issued five minutes after the City Prosecutor's office had closed for the day. It was learned, City Prosecutor Lickley and his first assistant, William V. Kross, had left the office when Sgt. Hoy appeared at the complaint desk and sought the complaint against the corporation.

Chief Prosecutor Concanon ordered Deputy Coultas to issue the complaint. Specifically, the tabloid is accused of "giving out information on horse racing in violation of the city ordinance." The newspaper is asserted to have printed a chart Saturday.

OJAI HILLS SEE NEW TEACHER

Dr. J. J. van der Law of Rotterdam, Prof. J. Praad of Madras University, India; Mrs. Chariemagne Tower, widow of the former United States Ambassador to Germany and Russia; Rex Barnett, a Chicago consulting engineer; Reginald Joia, London dressmaker; and Mrs. John R. Logan, president of the Philadelphia Theater Art Alliance.

Dr. John Ingelman of Hollywood, organizer for the Americans and Mrs. Henry Hotchner of Hollywood, are active in the affairs of the camp. Krishnamurti himself is head of the order. It is a spiritual organization in forty-seven countries and its magazine, the Star, is published in fourteen languages. The order was formed to promote the dissemination and reception of Krishnamurti's teaching.

Business meetings of the order are conducted at the camp in an open space in a live oak grove on one of the hillsides. Approximately 500 tents already have been erected to accommodate camp attendance.

DEPLORES ASCRIPTION
Some of Krishnamurti's followers have endowed him with supernatural qualities. He has been heralded as a second Jesus, an ascription which he decries. As a camp conference in Holland once his face is said suddenly to have been lighted and his voice so changed that he was declared by some to have been a human vehicle through which God Himself actually spoke to man at the time.

Krishnamurti himself says he is a world teacher through whom, as people believe, God occasionally enlightens man as to His purposes.

ORDER OF DAY
Services are opened each day with the people leaving their tents at 7:45 a. m. for a near-by hillside grove of oaks. There they spend about fifteen minutes in silent meditation before returning to the camp for breakfast.

The philosophy of the order is to be discussed at the morning meetings. In the afternoon business sessions are conducted and in the evening on the hilltop the principal addresses are to be delivered by Krishnamurti and others.

FLYING MILES
 A French commercial pilot regularly flies more than 18,000 miles a month and has been doing it for a long time. He has a steady course between Paris and Berlin and expects to keep it for the rest of his life. With luck he will pile up heavy mileage before he hangs up.

FLYING IN MEXICO
 Down in Mexico President Calles and the administration are creating a department of civil aviation and thereby taking the lead of Uncle Sam. Maybe the idea is to make aviation as civil as possible. However, a flyer will not be expected to doff his helmet to every buzzard he meets.

MONEY BACK
 Eastern backers of Gov. Smith sent $41,500 to the Democratic primary canvass in California, but the workers here returned $3500 of it. What was the matter with it? Was it too slippery? Is Easy Docket losing his mind? But it cannot be denied that the boys gave Al a run for his money.

PERILS OF POLITICS
 Gov. Ritchie says that politicians should give the public action and not conversation. It is conceded that the solons talk too much, but there is also a lot of harsh criticism when they do things. There doesn't seem to be any formula to keep a politician from going wrong. Even when he sleeps he tries to have his ear to the ground, and, of course, he catches cold.

DEADLY PARALLEL
 Pulling the deadly parallel on a rival book concern, the Encyclopedia Britannica publishes many closely printed pages to show how a competitor lurches much of its matter from an encyclopedia printed in 1895 and tried to palm it off for new information. TO DESCEND ON EVEREST
 Mt. Everest, upon the peak of which no man ever has set foot, may yet be conquered by the aid of an airplane. Capt. John B. Noel, explorer for the Royal Geographical Society of London, says he will make the attempt this summer. Once safely on the summit, which is 29,000 feet high, he is convinced that he could make important observations and lower himself over the side. Noel has been trying for ten years to scale Everest, and he says it can only be done by the means he suggests.

PROPAGANDA FACTORY
 Now it is timed that the biggest printing plant in the world is in Moscow. It not only turns out all the work of the soviet government, but there are school books and publications of many kinds. Also the work includes the printing of a great array of documents and pamphlets on behalf of Socialism and the Communists. This propaganda is in several other tongues than Russian. Possibly they are turning out Red literature that may be sent direct to this country. The Communists can never rest upon itself. It must forever be forcing its way into other fields.

CONTINUING AN EVIL

A combination of the representatives of States which would lose Congressmen by a fair apportionment with those jealous of the growth of certain sections of this country, has served again to defeat a plain mandate of the Constitution. The voting down on Friday of the Fenn bill, which would redistribute Congressional seats after the census of 1930, continues the evil which has grown out of the failure of Congressional reapportionment that should have followed the 1920 census, depriving of representation thousands of citizens in defiance of law and threatening representative government itself.

Every principle on which this government was founded, all fairness and all equity, require that Congressmen shall be redistributed from time to time in accordance with the shifts of population. This duty imposed by the Constitution upon the legislative branch of the government was carried out with reasonable faithfulness during more than 130 years. The requirement of the Constitution has been evaded in detail at times, neither the under-representation nor the over-representation has ever been very serious. It remained for the Congresses of the present decade to flout and deny it.

The result is that the Tenth California District, in which most of Los Angeles is situated, will continue to have but one Congressman for 1,250,000 inhabitants, while under a fair distribution it would have four. Detroit is the next most conspicuous sufferer. Commenting on the under-representation of Los Angeles, the Chicago Journal of Commerce says: "It is the worst story. There is no other instance so bad. But there are other instances that are bad enough."

The Fenn bill, which would have reapportionment in the hands of the Census Bureau automatically in case Congress failed to act after any decennial enumeration, provided the best remedy, short of an amendment to the Constitution, that probably could be devised for the situation. In addition to curbing the disfranchisement of citizens now deprived of their political rights, it would have stopped much bickering, log-rolling, intersectional bad feeling and the like, and would have furnished an example to the States where the "rotten borough" system is gaining a foothold.

California has not the only "rotten borough" Legislature; New York and Illinois also have inequitable distribution. California also has inequitable distribution of its Congressmen, a condition which it has asked its present Legislature in vain to remedy. A State Reapportionment Commission in each State and a Federal Reapportionment Commission for the United States would end the "rotten borough" problem forever. The Fenn bill or some similar measure is a necessity.

The longer reapportionment is postponed, the more difficult it is to bring it about; entrenched wrong is hard to dislodge; the over-represented States will hang on the more firmly to their illegitimate advantage the more they succeed in doing so. Continued, the evil will lead to such conditions as obtained in England, where the phrase "rotten borough" originated, and where Old Sarum, without a house or an inhabitant, was represented by two Members of Parliament while great cities like Manchester and Birmingham had none at all.

It was to prevent such a condition that decennial reapportionment was devised; the present plan is defective only because Congressmen weigh political advantage more heavily than their duty and respect it more than their voters' office. Congressional defiance of this provision of the Constitution is evil not only because it brings about the tyranny of "taxation without representation," but because it lowers respect for all law and furnishes a bad example to those who would evade or disobey other constitutional and statutory provisions.

A Congress elected under an apportionment based on the Census of 1910 is an illegal Congress in 1935, and will be still more so in 1937. To a certain extent the acts of the present Congress are not morally binding, though legally so. The bar-striker which biots the legislative escutcheon will grow wider and wider as time goes on, unless Congress takes steps to legitimize itself. It can only do so by abandoning political expediency and returning to a constitutional basis.

A pledge in both national party platforms that this and other mandates of the Constitution will be faithfully carried out, is obviously in order.

LET THEM STAND FIRM

When one small group is able, through political pressure, to obtain special concessions or special consideration, the whole body of citizens is done an injury which, in the long run, reacts upon the small group also so that everybody is the worse off. This economic principle applies to the scheme now before the Board of Supervisors to raise the pay of county employees to a point suggested by union-labor organizers.

Where the pay of county employees now compares favorably with that of private employment of the same character, to increase it merely means that county work of that character will have to be curtailed, employees will be dispersed with and will enter the open labor market, depressing prices, and eventually bringing county wages down also.

The Supervisors should stand firm against the efforts of the Buzzeles to run the business entrusted by the voters and taxpayers to the Supervisors themselves. Wages, like other prices, are controlled in the long run, by supply and demand. They cannot be increased artificially and held there. Public pay should never be consciously above, nor below, private pay for the same work, lest injury be done both to market adjustments and to the workers. Danger to the latter arises from the fact that they are overpaid, their jobs will be coveted by men not so fortunate and they will be ousted at the first political overturn, civil service or no civil service.

LEE SIDE O' LA

By Lee Shippey

OTHER day we published a story on our small son, John, and then apologized to our mother, who was reared in the old tradition and thinks it isn't good form to make copy of one's own family, and pleaded with her that "sometimes we find it as hard to fill up this column as you used to find it to fill up the author."

Next day we received a shower of letters from people who wanted to help us out. All were from people we've never seen. But one lady who said she was past 70 had covered two pages with delicate handwriting. Another sent three unsigned anecdotes, and the accompanying note, signed "Mrs. T. H. B.," said: "Hope these will help out. The grind must be wearing. Hope you soon get a long vacation—on pay."

Confidentially

Just between us, we're not straining or "pressing" a bit. We get a lot of daily fun out of this job. But the biggest joy comes from the real friendliness of you-all contributors. You not only do most of the work, but seem to be doing it out of pure comradeship.

It's true that we grunt and look agitated and tear our hair a good deal around the office, but we only do that for the boss's benefit. If he had any idea what a lot of pleasure we get out of our job he might expect us to pay him space rates instead of paying us.

Can't Popularize 'Em With Us

Lee: "WANTED—A real go-getter to manage our cemetery."

That's an advertisement I've never seen, but I'm sure it must have been run somewhere, for I'm on a mailing list, and am constantly circled by flowers, etc., on every sentimental anniversary.

Thanks for The Times editorial protesting such commercialization. We can stand for people making profit out of us as long as we live, but it's too tough when some of 'em want it as long as we stay dead.—B. M.

Japanese Lady Barbers

Another thing you didn't know before, if you aren't a lot better informed than we were, is that there are 150 Japanese barbers in this city—so many that the Japanese Barbers' Business Association is a flourishing organization.

Furthermore, a lot of those barbers are women. Mrs. Saki Noda, who operates a barber shop on Aliso street near Alameda, tells us most of her customers are American men. She was working on one while we interviewed her—a business man whose office was near by. There are five other barber shops operated by Japanese women on Aliso and San Pedro streets, not to mention beauty shops on First street.

In fact, as Main street goes, so goes San Pedro. We fear it soon may be hard to orientate oneself in our Little Nippon.

grown to 55,751, or 0.73 for every thousand.

The year 1916 witnessed 112,035 separations, or 1.13 for every 1000. The list had grown to 165,096 in 1923, or 1.48 per 1000. The very next year the totals had jumped to 170,952, or 1.50 per 1000.

The last available statistics for the year 1925 show 175,449 divorces granted, or 1.52 per 1000. The rate of divorce in 1925 was three times that of 1887. Twenty-eight States had a higher rate than the country as a whole.

Lack of uniformity in laws is one of the chief causes of divorce. While we may not be ready for Federal action, yet a uniform code regulating the union of epicure, degenerates, incipient criminals, drug addicts, paupers and drunks would scotch this chief enemy of the home.

When stocks that can hardly be called "better" than business men's investments sell at prices that make their yield less than that of high-grade bonds, they evidently are being overestimated, and when stocks are overestimated there is danger of a crash.

In no previous bull market have bank stocks attracted so much attention. The possible unfortunate effects of speculation in bank stocks have been commented on before. Violent fluctuations in bank-stock prices may easily shake public confidence in the stability of perfectly sound institutions, whose resources cannot be affected by what goes on in the stock market, but which would be hurt by foundationless rumors. It is obviously in the public interest that bank stocks be bought and sold freely by and to legitimate investors; it is equally obvious that they should not become mere chips in a gambling game. When they are forced in a speculative market far above their book value, that book value is a landmark of possession. The price falls, as it must sooner or later. It is difficult to make the uninformed understand that there is no more reason for the decline than there was for the rise.

So far the Federal Reserve Board has handled the situation with great skill, avoiding extremes, and there is every reason to believe it will continue to do so. But it appears to be determined to force stock transactions back into a normal channel.

One Central Morality
 SAN MARINO, May 17.—(To the Editor of The Times: I am one of your correspondents, Mr. Charles D. Hunt, states that 1153 arrests were made in Los Angeles last month for drunkenness.

John Erskine has amused himself by writing a book entitled "Prohibition, Christianity, and Other Paradoxes of the American Spirit."

Says he: "The Bible, and words of Christian leaders condemn prohibition as inconsistent with the cardinal virtue of temperance, yet though prohibitionists are conspicuous for their faith in the authority of the Bible, they are now making prohibition the chief article of their creed."

"Would that we could," he laments, "return to the noble doctrine of temperance and moderation. The Greeks, Christians, and the founders of the Middle Ages, of the founders of this country. We need the virtue of temperance more than they, since life heaps opportunities upon us to be prodigal and wasteful."

"The virtues of temperance would protect us from the evils of liquor, and what not more besides. We don't need a separate prohibition for each sin when one central morality could deliver us from all."

Another Die-Hard

COEUR D'ALENE (Idaho) May 14.—(To the Editor of The Times: It is rather amusing to see the panic the Democratic papers take at mention of President Coolidge's running again for President, and to see how the Republican papers try to sidetrack the thought of Al Smith's nomination. Let us be frank and admit that President Coolidge and Al Smith would be the strongest candidates of their respective parties, especially now that Senator Walsh is out of the race. In view of the practical certainty of Al Smith's nomination, let me urge upon Republican leaders the advisability, nay, the necessity, of the nomination of President Coolidge. Coolidge and Smith are the heads of their respective parties. Let them fight it out, and see which is the better man.

There is only one hindrance to President Coolidge's running again—the third-term tradition. But this tradition has no validity at this time of peculiar crisis to the country. Let it be well understood that the country is facing a real crisis in the present political campaign, and then President Coolidge's nomination will set no precedent to overturn the third-term tradition. As to the President's "I do not choose to run" statement, that statement simply expressed his personal desire. But as a faithful public servant, and a patriotic American, the President should not let his personal desire stand against the nation's desire. If President Coolidge runs against Smith, a Republican victory is practically assured. If Hoover runs, the event will be doubtful. What is the cause of the present widespread business depression? I venture to say that it is the thought of Smith's occupying the Presidential chair.

Superstitions Apostrophe.

LONG BEACH, May 18.—(To the Editor of The Times: I noticed in your esteemed journal of 15th inst. the announcement of a gathering of the professional cartoonists in the interest of an art exhibit (in the original) of their popular work. I am going to take advantage of this occasion to enter a vigorous protest against a peculiar custom of some prominent cartoonists, to wit: that of using the apostrophe in the possessive pronouns "his," "hers," "its," "ours," "yours" and "theirs." Almost everyone knows this, but very few persons can name them off-hand. The writer has been watching the intrusion of the apostrophe in these pronouns by comic strip artists, sign writers, headline writers and others, for several years and is pained to observe a growing tendency for this last word in illiteracy. The personal possessives carry their own hallmark of possession, hence need no extraneous marks to indicate ownership. The most prominent victim of this unaccountable obsession is the neutral possessive, "its." Next comes the first plural form, "ours." Only rarely is the apostrophe seen in "yours" and "theirs," and wonderful to relate, it is not visible in "his" or "her." At least I have never seen it. But there is just one rule for all six of these important little words: viz, "keep it out!" There are no exceptions.

In this cultured beach resort (where Sunday dancing is taboo) there is a sign, 100 feet or more, on the side of the old Masonic Temple, directly adjoining the roof of the building, which reads: "The Story That Inspires Its Patrons With Confidence." There is naught in that legend to inspire any new corner with confidence in our school system. The story in question is no longer in the minds of the patrons.

PROTECTION FOR MANCHURIA

BY BAILEY HILLARD

No matter how the storm of battle may rage in other parts of China there will be peace and quiet in Manchuria. Japan has promised this several times during the last few years, and she will carry out her promises. The Chinese did not materially interfere with Japan after she made her bold stand in Shantung for the protection of her interests there, and they will not be fools enough to carry the war into Manchuria.

"Japan will not tolerate disorder in Manchuria," declared Premier Tanaka last July, "though we are ready to recognize any Chinese government capable of stabilizing the situation. Japan adheres to the open-door policy, and holds itself responsible for keeping Manchuria safe for foreign trade. The needs of Japan Chinese policy is the preservation of peace and the mutual development of trade and prosperity."

And now, while Tien-shan, the gateway to Manchuria, is threatened by the Southern Chinese forces in their onward march to Peking, the Tanaka dictum is repeated. It means, plainly enough, that Japan is prepared to go to any length to keep the battling Chinese war lords out of Manchurian territory.

Of course, in what was said in the Tanaka note about the Manchuria safe for foreign trade, Japan's spokesman was saying two words for Japan to one for the other nations. But this is quite natural and reasonable. It follows the traditions of European diplomacy as well as our own. Japan has enormous railroad and other concessions in Manchuria and has invested hundreds of millions of dollars in the development of that country.

Standing by the treaty rights by which they acquired large tracts of rights, mining and agricultural property in that country, the Japanese will not permit irresponsible Chinese factions to abrogate or in any way violate those historic agreements under which Japan undertook the development of the country after the Russian evacuation. And it is a good thing for the other powers interested there that this was so, that Japan stand reiterated in it in the face of the Southern menace.

Often I have heard people who have not studied the situation speak slightly of Japan as a bully seeking in every way possible to dominate Chinese affairs. This sort of talk reveals a woeful ignorance of the history of Japanese diplomacy and of the frequent assurances made by their government of its peaceful intentions toward the Chinese people. For years before the rise of Baron Tanaka to the premiership, Japan's Chinese policy had been one of peaceful waiting. Baron Shidehara, the Foreign Minister, had shown no little sympathy for the Young China movement, but Japan did not favor it with a word. When Tanaka succeeded Watanabe as Premier it was said in Japan that he would pursue a more vigorous policy. He was identified with the Japanese military faction, and he was addicted to warlike talk. But while he has confined his Chinese diplomacy to "watchful waiting" of a more circumspect nature, he never has jumped over the fence.

In fact, so far from bullying or badgering of any sort is concerned the Japanese have shown even more restraint than the other powers. For example, the Wuchoo and Nanking incidents. When in 1925 Peking asked the powers to negotiate treaties on the basis of equality and recognition of the Chinese Chinese ideas, Japan readily acceded to the request, and at the conference that nation as well as America favored China in ways not acceptable to Britain, which was still strong in extra-territoriality the collection of customs and other features of the old unequal treaties, and the conference broke up. Thus Japan was forced into a position of aloofness, which, out of respect to other powers, she has maintained. Of course she would not permit her railroad and other interests in Shantung to run over by a band of irresponsible revolutionists. Intervention there was both necessary and excusable. But it did not nor will it extend to China as a whole, to Shantung and now to Manchuria, if it shall become necessary. And the other powers can make no legitimate protest.

Just one year ago Tanaka, in a statement in which he expressed the hope that China would emerge from her state of disorder and set up a stable government, said that if there were no further "unwarranted incidents," the time will come when we shall be able to meet China's aspirations for autonomy. There has been no recession on the part of Japan from that position. All that nation wants so far as China is concerned is the peace and prosperity of that country. But Japan will brook no tramping upon her treaty rights in Shantung, Manchuria or elsewhere.

An insignificant item in a book of magazine reports is the sale of the Czechoslovak rights to ten novels by B. M. Bowser, author of western adventure stories. Pretty soon, we dare prophesy, owners of the little shops in the Czechoslovak market places will have to push over the head work and the embroidered blouses, the quaint ribbon-and-buckle garters and picturesque hats for the young chaps of that fast-nating country are going to be yelling for chaps and two-gun belts, for ten-gallon hats and high-heeled boots.

SOCIETY

BY JUANA NEAL LEVY

Of much interest to local society of the Southland is the announcement made this morning by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Joyce of 1181 Old Mill Road, Pasadena, of the engagement of their attractive young daughter, Miss Mary Joyce, to Chandler Parks Barton, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Barton of this city. The wedding is to be an event of the latter part of June.

Miss Joyce, one of the most popular members of the younger set of Los Angeles and Pasadena, is actively engaged in the philanthropic work of the Pasadena Junior League, as well as being a prominent member of the Spinsters' Club. She is the grand-daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. Thomas W. Haskins, the former being one of the most beloved rectors of the Southland, having been the first rector of Christ Episcopal Church in Los Angeles, and her mother was formerly Miss Josephine Haskins.

Miss Joyce was graduated from the Holton Arms School in Washington, where her parents made their home for four years, and both

Miss Mary and her sister, Mrs. Morris Barnes Miller (Frances Joyce), were students at Holton Arms. Miss Joyce has two brothers in the East, Thomas Haskins Joyce, who married Miss Mary Martin of San Francisco, a prominent young lawyer of New York City, while Robert Joyce has just entered the diplomatic service in Washington, and a third brother, William H. Joyce, Jr., makes his home with his parents in Pasadena.

Delightful Affair
Honoring Charles Wakefield Cadman and his mother, Mrs. Cadman, a beautifully appointed dinner party, was given Sunday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Horatio Cogswell at their home in Orange Drive. Other guests included Mrs. Ralph Waldo Trine, Mrs. Abbie Norton Jamison, Mrs. Lulu B. Teft, Miss Mabel Cadman, Mrs. Oliveva Sanford and Charles Draz.

Hotel Ceremony
One of the most attractive informal weddings of last week was that of Thursday, the 17th inst., when Mrs. Dorothy Hudson Rock, daughter of Mrs. Theodore Hudson of Duluth, Minn., was married to James Ahlfield Flanagan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Curran E. Flanagan of Canton, O. The ceremony was solemnized at 4 p.m. in the Rose Room of the Chapman Park Hotel by Rev. Dr. McNair of a Los Angeles Presbyterian church.

Roses, blue delphinium and ferns formed a delicate background for the ceremony, which was witnessed by forty guests, and a reception and tea were later given in the main dining-room. Mrs. Flanagan wore a going-away costume of blue silk crepe trimmed in gray satin, with small hat and shoes to match, and wore with it an exquisite corsage of orchids.

After a two weeks' honeymoon at Del Monte Mr. and Mrs. Flanagan will make their home in Los Angeles. Mrs. Flanagan was graduated from the Gardner School in New York, while Mr. Flanagan was graduated from Stanford University, where he was a member of the Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Summer in Europe
Mrs. Willis Sherman Mitchell of 826 South Manhattan avenue leaves the latter part of this week for New York City, whence she will sail June 8 for a summer in Europe, which she will pass touring the continent. At present Mrs. Mitchell's daughter, Mrs. Richard Martin Scruggs, is visiting her en route to Annapolis, where she and her husband, Lieut. Scruggs, will be stationed for a year.

Matinee and Luncheon
Invitations have been issued by Mrs. Ursula Louise K. Welch, 407 South Orange Drive, for a luncheon and matinee party to be given June 2 in honor of Mrs. Benjamin F. Bledsoe and Mrs. Isaac O. Upham. The affair is to take place in the Hollywood Play House, where, preceding the afternoon performance, Mrs. Welch will preside at luncheon in the patio.

San Francisco Honored
Miss Genevieve Young of South Arden Boulevard entertained Saturday afternoon with an informal bridge-tea honoring Miss Fausta Mogensen, who is here on a visit from San Francisco. Included among the guests were Mrs. Richard M. Bates, Mrs. Elmer Downey, Mrs. Stanley R. Hill, Mrs. Dan O'Connell, Mrs. Cormac McConnell, Mrs. Murray Robinson, Mrs. Reginald Rogers, Mrs. Robert Cleghorn, Mrs. Howard Ellis, Mrs. Lowery Hammond and Mrs. Bernadette Martineau.

European Tour
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Webster Huntley of 435 South Irving Boulevard left Friday, the 18th inst., for a four months' tour of Europe. They sail the 20th inst. from New York aboard the Italian liner Conte Grande, arriving in Naples and later touring the continent, England and Scotland.

Athletic Club Affair
The Women's Athletic Club of Los Angeles is planning to feature Russian dancers and entertainers at a dinner-dance to be given the evening of Friday, the 25th inst. In the garden, which is such an alluring feature of the club, strolling players and singers will take up their abode, and attractive garden-motif decorations also are being arranged for the dining-room by Mrs. Henrietta Beach. Ira Gray's orchestra will furnish music for dancing, the affair to be the last dinner-dance of the club's winter season.

Mrs. E. Avery McCarthy, a member of the board of directors, is to return from her winter's cruise in time to act as hostess for the evening.

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will secure a personal reply.

VACATION PROBLEMS AGAIN CONFRONT MOTHERS

Question: Mrs. L. L. writes: "My son is seventeen months old and is cutting his eighth tooth. He is in perfect health, has walked since eleven months. Do you think him slow in teething? We are planning a 600-mile motor trip. Would this hurt him? It will be his second summer and teething as well. Would you advise taking him?"

Answer: Yes, the baby is rather slow teething, twelve teeth are nearer the average for eighteen months. I don't like the responsibility of making decisions about traveling with babies. It wouldn't be a treat to me

FORMAL BETROTHAL REVEALED

Pasadena Society Girl Will Be Wed

Miss Mary Joyce

FORMAL announcement is made this morning by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Joyce of 1181 Old Mill Road, Pasadena, of the engagement of their attractive daughter, Miss Mary Joyce, to Chandler Parks Barton, son of the late Dr. and Mrs. H. P. Barton of this city. The wedding will be an event of the latter part of June.

her to stay dry until you are on the toilet, or until she has that she must go.

Q: Mrs. L. C. H. writes: "Please tell me what to do with my seventeen-month-old boy who doesn't walk yet. I took his bottle away three weeks ago and since then his appetite is small. He eats his milk in the morning and takes his milk from a cup, but he will not eat lunch, or hardly any supper, just a few bites and then he stops. He is getting 'ew' teeth. He likes fruit and orange juice and he gets fresh air and sun whenever possible. What shall I do?"

A: Probably this loss of appetite is due temporarily to the teething. This usually spoils the appetite. Why not just accept it for the time being, get the child out daily for several hours, give cod-liver oil, both as an appetizer and because something is wrong or the child would be walking, and offer only three meals a day, milk at each meal, and try not to make any fuss about the non-eating or you may set up a real problem. I think it would be very wise to have the doctor look the child over to be sure he hasn't some degree of rickets.

Q: Mrs. E. R. H. writes: "My baby, fifteen and one-half months' old, is fed by your feeding leaflet. She eats everything I give her and nothing between meals. Why does she void every fifteen or twenty minutes? She has been put on the toilet since three months of age. Her urine tests were all right. Can you help me?"

A: It is very common for children to void this often. Try putting the child on the toilet at slightly longer intervals all the time: first fifteen, then twenty, then twenty-five, then thirty minutes apart. If she is used to the stool I think she will wait and you will eventually train

COTTON RESEARCH BEGINS

Botanic Garden Will Carry on Experiments With View to Aiding Southland Growers

Dr. E. D. Merrill, director of the California Botanic Garden at Mandeville Canyon, yesterday announced that the garden has been selected as the spot best situated for co-operative research on certain varieties of cotton with a view toward aiding raisers on this coast.

A large collection of living cotton plants and cotton allies were delivered to the garden yesterday from the United States Department of Agriculture in Washington, and in beginning the work botanists at the garden believe results of distinct advantage to California's cotton industry will be achieved.

According to Dr. Merrill, the government has been carrying on extensive cotton investigations in California, a large station at Shafter in the San Joaquin Valley being maintained for practical work and a small isolated station at Torrey Pines housing a variety collection. A point remote from commercial cotton activities must be maintained for variety collections to prevent natural hybridization of commercial types, it is said.

Experience has proven the Torrey Pines station to be impractical for the more tropical forms of cotton and the Federal department officials arranged to establish a selected variety collection at Mandeville Canyon. The first shipment of living plants from Washington will be augmented frequently. Under the favorable climatic conditions at the California Botanic Garden, cotton varieties that are essential for plant breeding should be carried to maturity very successfully, Dr. Merrill believes.

No more reddened hands. No soapy film. See how china sparkles and glasses glisten when washed this easy way

JUST pick up the phone. Ask your grocer for Super Suds. And tonight after dinner you'll discover a new quick way to wash dishes . . . worlds better than you've ever known before.

It's so easy, Madam, you'll hardly believe your eyes.

Just pour a little bit of this new-type soap in your dishpan. Then instantly . . . with a whisk and a swish, you get rich, active suds.

In go the dishes. Off come the grease and grime. Give them a hot rinse and let them drain and dry by themselves.

No dish towels. No polishing. No soapy film. It's simply wonderful to see how dishes gleam and glisten when washed this new quick way.

And even more wonderful is the way this new soap leaves your hands. No redness. No roughness.

First bar soap—then chips . . . now Super Suds

Years ago women had only bar soap—but that was unsatisfactory. How hard they had to work getting a soapy solution, and how hard it was to rinse away those clinging soap particles.

Next came chips. Many women changed to this form of soap because it could be stirred into a cleansing solution. But clothes and dishes had to be rinsed too much in order to get rid of the undissolved soap.

Now comes Super Suds, and women are changing to it by the thousands in preference to all other forms of soap.

Super Suds is not a chip . . . not a powder . . . but a remarkable new form of soap in tiny hollow "beads," so thin that they burst into suds the instant they touch water.

Four times as thin as chips, Super Suds is the thinnest soap made.

Dishes sparkle in no time when just pour a little Super Suds into your dishpan. Put in the dishes. Then a quick hot rinse and dishes are ready for drying. It's wonderfully kind to your hands, too, Madam.

First, Super Suds is so thin it dissolves instantly . . . it saves time and enables Second, Super Suds dissolves completely . . . no undissolved soap in spots on clothes or film on dishes. Women like Super Suds because it does the work faster and better than any other form of soap.

Washes clothes whiter — with far less work

Super Suds works wonders on wash-day, too! You never saw a soap that gets clothes clean so quickly and easily.

The rich soapy solution soaks away all grease and grime. No tedious rubbing and scrubbing . . . your clothes are out on the line in half the usual time. And it's the biggest box of soap on the market for ten cents!

Please make this simple test

Madam, don't take our word for it. This. Test Super Suds out for yourself. Just buy one box and compare it with the soap you're using now. Try it last dishwashing . . . and then for laundry work.

If you don't feel it's as good as we say, then go back to your old soap . . . and you're out ten cents.

But we know you'll agree with all these other women who call Super Suds "the greatest soap they ever used."

Put it down on your grocery list today

Come on Over, Says Note to News Men

John B. Long, departing for Memphis convention, accepting invitation from William May Garland to be delivered to Editorial Association.

entire court day yesterday presenting his client's case to the jury, during which he asserted that all of Rouse's acts in connection with the Julian company were at the order of his superiors in the bank where he was employed.

While in some quarters yesterday it was believed a verdict will be returned in short order by the jury, others declared that the many ramifications of the case, including the fact that seven different defendants must be passed on, will necessitate much discussion in the jury room, and that it will be out several days.

DR. VON KLEINSMID
DINNER HOST TONIGHT

Dr. R. B. Von Kleinsmid, president of the University of Southern California, will be host at a dinner tonight for a group of men and women who have been invited to meet Dr. Ralph T. Flewelling, head of the department of philosophy, and Dr. H. Wildon Carr, visiting professor. Brief addresses will be made by Dr. Flewelling and Dr. Carr. The latter is former head of the department of philosophy, King's College, University of London, former president of the Aristotelian Society of London, and a fellow of the Royal Society of Literature.

Invitations went yesterday to the National Editorial Association to hold its annual convention of 1928 in Los Angeles. The invitations were taken by John B. Long, executive secretary of the California Newspaper Publishers' Association, who left by Southern Pacific for Memphis, Tenn., where the editorial association will convene the first week in June. The editors will be urged to make Los Angeles their convention city during the year that the International Olympic Games are held here.

As hundreds of newspaper correspondents from all over the United States will be here during 1928 describing the games for their papers, it is believed the editorial association will find this the most convenient city to hold their convention of that year.

OUR HISTORY IN PICTURES 1035

The Story of Our War With Spain. The Destruction of Cervera's Fleet—1.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

ABOUT 9:30 IN THE MORNING OF JULY 3, 1898 THE SHIPS OF CERVERA'S SPANISH FLEET WERE SIGHTED STEAMING OUT OF THE NARROW ENTRANCE TO SANTIAGO BAY. ON THE AMERICAN SHIPS BLOCKADING THE HARBOR INSTANTLY ROSE THE CRY: "THE SPANIARDS ARE COMING OUT!"

OUR WARSHIPS LAY IN A HALF-CIRCLE ABOUT THREE MILES OFF SHORE. THAT MORNING THE BATTLESHIP "MASSACHUSETTS" WAS COALING AT GUANTANAMO, WHILE THE FAST CRUISER "NEW YORK" HAD TAKEN ADMIRAL SAMPSON TO SIBONEY, 8 MILES EAST, WHERE HE WAS CONFERRING WITH GEN. SHAFTER.

FORTUNE SLIGHTLY FAVORED THE SPANIARDS IN THEIR ACCIDENTALLY PICKING A TIME FOR THEIR DASH WHEN TWO OF OUR MOST POWERFUL SHIPS WERE AWAY FROM THEIR POSTS. COMMANDER SCHLEY, WHO IN SAMPSON'S ABSENCE HAD ASSUMED COMMAND, IMMEDIATELY GAVE THE ORDERS TO OUR SHIPS, "CLEAR FOR ACTION" AND "CLOSE UP" AND THE FIGHT WAS ON.

ONLY ONE OF OUR WARSHIPS, THE BATTLESHIP "OREGON," HAD FULL STEAM UP, AND IT WAS SHE WHO FIRST FIRED THE SHOTS THAT BROKE THE SPANISH FLEET'S FORMATION. SHE WAS FOLLOWED BY THE BATTLESHIP "MASSACHUSETTS," AND THE FIGHT WAS ON.

YANKWICH IN RACE FOR JUDGESHIP

Full Term Now Sought as Approval of Appointment to Bench by Governor

Superior Judge Leon R. Yankwich yesterday announced his candidacy for judge of Department No. 9 to succeed himself at the coming primary. In announcing his candidacy for a full term Judge Yankwich declared he is asking a confirmation by the people of Gov. Young's action in naming him to fill the judgeship until election.

Judge Yankwich was appointed to the bench in August, 1927. Since that time he has been assigned to handle a wide range of litigation. Judge Yankwich has no unfinished business, having disposed of every question submitted in his department. He now is sitting in the court of domestic relations.

DETECTIVES HUNT UNION TERRORISTS

Fingerprints Give Clues to Identity of Theater Outrage Perpetrators

Two squads of detectives were assigned yesterday by Capt. Williams to hunt down those responsible for several recent attempts to terrorize managers of three nonunion motion picture theaters who have declined to submit to union demands. One house has been victimized three times within the last two weeks, when patrons were forced to leave the place when acid bombs created a noxious stench. Two other houses were attacked Saturday night. In one of these a bottle with two acids was found. The arrangement was such that the bomber would have an opportunity to flee before his handiwork was known. Charges of arson will be preferred against the criminals on arrest, Capt. Williams said yesterday. Clues to the identity of the perpetrators were found in fingerprints upon the bottles.

Trojan Co-ed Selected for Editorial Post

Breaking all precedents, a co-ed, Jessica Heber, has been chosen by the legislative council of the University of Southern California to succeed Bryant Hale as editor of the Trojan institution.

Heber, who is a Los Angeles girl, was selected on the strength of her past achievements in journalism at S.C. Since her freshman days she has been on the staff of El Rodeo and the Daily Trojan, and during the past year she served as humor editor of the Wampus. She is a member of Sigma and Alpha Chi Alpha, journalism societies, Spooks and Spooks, junior women's honor society, and the Amasons. The retiring editor, Bryant Hale, 19 years of age, is the youngest member of the 1928 crop of graduates at S.C. He will enter Harvard this fall and subsequently he plans to go to Oxford University, England.

Youth in Power, Says Playwright

"The fate of the theater is rapidly passing into young writers' hands," said Bayard Veiller, author of "The Trial of Mary Dugan," at the Ambassador yesterday.

"I would sound a warning, however, to the younger playwright that the public is hungry for a depth of thought in plays and that there is danger in the rapidity of creation and production which is taking place. Modern playwrights are slouching in the front, believing that a gaudy veneer will command the returns of the box office, but the art calls for patience, exhaustive study and careful construction and I doubt that younger authors are working as carefully and as hard as they should."

Predatory Love Brings Divorce

How two women, one his wife, were involved in the loves of Lloyd Tock and how both were shabbily treated was unfolded yesterday in the hearing of the divorce suit brought by Mrs. Armina Tock in Judge Blake's court on grounds of cruelty, non-support and desertion. According to the wife's story, Tock left her to go to Mrs. S. M. Mealey. The wife wrote a letter to Mrs. Mealey asking that she send him back. Mrs. Mealey answered that she made her best, tickled, went through her purse every night and then departed, taking her best pillowcase and a dresser scarf. The divorce was granted.

The University of California, Stanford, University of Southern California, Whittier and Occidental colleges were represented at the meeting. All the colleges and universities on the Coast will have cheer experts at the October session.

Judge Amazed by Number of Death Attempts

When Judge Gould took his chair yesterday to preside over the Lunacy Commission session at the General Hospital and eleven cases of attempted suicide were called for investigation he was amazed.

"It looks as if there is a suicide epidemic in Los Angeles county," the judge remarked. Just what is causing it all he is unable to say, unless the spell weather experienced here during the last week has had something to do with it.

MANN ACT SUSPECT TURNED OVER TO STATE

Probability of Federal charges of violation of the Mann Act against John Church, an automobile mechanic, who was arrested here recently by local police and Federal agents upon information provided by Salt Lake City police, was eliminated yesterday when the government turned the case over to the State authorities. As a result Church is being held here for extradition to Salt Lake City on a charge of bigamy, it being charged that he married his Nichols in December, 1925, while the legal husband of another woman in Utah. The Federal agents yesterday surrendered Church to the State authorities.

Pasadena Sends Geologist Into Pine Canyon

Plans for $7,000,000 Wall Hinge on His Tests

Recent St. Francis Tragedy Causes Rigid Check

PASADENA, May 21.—Whether or not this city will erect a $7,000,000 dam at the Pine Canyon site in the upper San Gabriel Canyon which would assure Pasadena an adequate supply of water for the next twenty years, will depend on the result of tests being made by Dr. P. L. Ransome of the California Institute of Technology, to determine the strength of the rock strata underlying the site, it was revealed today.

Dr. Ransome, who was one of the geologists named to investigate the cause of the St. Francis dam disaster, was employed by city officials to make an exhaustive geological survey of the Pine Canyon site foundation. Under his direction, it is believed, the city will determine whether the rock is harder and less soluble than that on which the St. Francis dam was constructed. Pasadena will abandon the site, it was stated today.

DATA NOT COMPLETE
Dr. Ransome said that he has not yet completed the requisite field work, but that he expects to submit his report within ten days. City officials have made no announcement of the fact that they have empowered the geologist to pass on the site. Dr. Ransome said he did not care to state whether his report would favor the construction of the dam or recommend its abandonment of the site.

FINANCING PLANNED
The city plans for holding a $7,000,000 bond election this year to finance the dam project. The proposed dam is expected to make it possible to divert eighty second feet of water to the city. This is believed to be an adequate supply to care for population increases until the anticipated consummation of the Boulder dam project.

In his report on the St. Francis dam disaster, Prof. Ransome declared that the disaster was the direct result of the use of a soft and soluble rock for the dam's foundation. The material cementing the rock together is soluble in water.

Train Hits Over Negro
VENTURA, May 21.—Felix Ray, 25-year-old Santa Barbara negro, is in the General Hospital here in a serious condition, having lost his right leg when he was run over by a train near Camarillo yesterday.

He was found lying on the ground after a train crew had reported seeing a dead man beside the tracks. He had lain beside the tracks near by three hours, according to Coroner Reardon, who brought him to the hospital.

Because of his condition Ray was not able to give a satisfactory account of the accident or what had led up to it. He said he was in Santa Barbara either Saturday or Sunday morning and had obtained automobile rides as far as Oxnard and was walking along the track when a train hit him. It is the coroner's opinion, however, that the man was riding the rods of a train and fell beneath the wheels.

MAN CRUSHED BY CASING

Another Oil Company Employee Sustains Broken Arm in Accident at Ventura Field

VENTURA, May 21.—Lloyd Ross, Associated Oil Company employee, was crushed to death and O. H. Vallandigham, a fellow-workman, suffered a broken arm yesterday when a load of casing which was being unloaded at one of the oil company wells in the Ventura field, rolled from a trailer and caught the pair.

Ross is said to have been standing beside the trailer, which was loaded with heavy pipe. The truck had already been unloaded and it was the plan to put a rope under the pipe back of the trailer and to drop the pipe onto it. Ross had been working with the pipe and was standing beside the trailer when the driver jerked the truck and the trailer ahead, it is said.

A piling on the side of the trailer broke and the pipe rolled sideways, catching the two men before they could jump to safety. Ross's skull was fractured, his chest was crushed and he died before he could be gotten into an ambulance. Vallandigham was taken to the Big Sisters Hospital.

The dead man had lived in Ventura four years, coming here on his birthplace at Table Grove. He leaves his widow, Mrs. Lola Ross, and two sons, Dale and Paul, 6 and 4 years of age.

Students Will Erect Building
SANTA ANA, May 21.—Voters in a strip of land, extending from South Santa Ana to the head of Newport Bay and including part of the Costa Mesa district, will go to the polls tomorrow to decide whether the strip shall become part of the city of Santa Ana. The election will climax a bitter campaign.

The annexationists are headed by W. Carl Spencer and the anti-annexationists by George Waterman. The annexation group has received the support of the Santa Ana newspaper and Secretary George Raymer of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce. Large land holding interests are said to be back of the fight against annexation.

The territory will be divided into two precincts for the election, one polling place being located at St. Gertrude street school, at the edge of Santa Ana, the other being in the Woman's clubhouse at Costa Mesa. Polls will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Litigation involved by annexation opponents has been held off in court until after election, to give opportunity for a settlement by ballot. If the annexation proposal should fail, then its opponents will come into Superior Court the 25th inst. for a writ of review against the Santa Ana City Council, to nullify the proposed annexation. The writ sought is that both inhabited and uninhabited territory was included, contrary to law.

Death Claims Old-Timer of Orange County

Officers Drop Investigation

FULLERTON, May 21.—Charles Stone, 73 years of age, a resident of this district for sixty years, died yesterday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Anna Solis at Richfield. Since the death of his wife three years ago he had made his home with Mrs. Solis.

Stone was superintendent of the Santa Union Water Company for thirty-two years and retired from the position three years ago. A native son of California, he spent his boyhood in Hayward.

He was the son of J. B. Stone, who died here many years ago. Old-timers of this vicinity remember Stone as the marshal-of-the-day at the inaugural Fourth-of-July and other celebrations in Orange county, when he always led the parades on horseback. He was regarded as an accomplished equestrian.

He was a member of the Elks lodge and that order will have charge of funeral services, which will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. at McAulay Butters chapel. Interment will be made in Loma Vista Cemetery.

He leaves three children: Jerome E. Stone and Charles A. Stone of Long Beach and Mrs. Solis.

Students to Conduct Mock Convention

Huntington Park, May 21.—Students of the Huntington Park Union High School are completing plans for a mock national convention to be held in the high school auditorium here on next Friday afternoon, which will be one of the most exciting "political" contests in selecting a choice to make the race that has ever been held in the local school for the past twelve years, these events taking place once every four years.

Citrus debated Long Beach Union College for the title on the 15th inst., when, due to an absent judge, both sides tied. However, percentages were ruled on preceding the debate, and even though Citrus was defeated in votes of the judges, its score counted up 21 more points than Long Beach.

A letter of congratulation from Dean Ralph H. Bush of the beach city school was read this morning in assembly by Principal Hayden. The awarding of the championship to Citrus Junior College marks the first year that the school has won the Southern California title. The Citrus Union High School recently won the debating championship of the San Gabriel Valley League.

HIGH-SPEED ROAD URGED

New Connection Between Pasadena and Los Angeles Along Arroyo Seco Recommended

PASADENA, May 21.—A high-speed boulevard following the line of the Arroyo Seco should be constructed in the immediate future to link this city with Los Angeles, was the substance of a resolution passed today by the directors of the Pasadena Realty Board.

The Los Angeles Planning Commission is preparing to survey the proposed route and make recommendations for construction of such a highway between the two cities, according to the text of a letter received by the directors from Jackson W. Kendall, chairman of the Realty Board's transportation committee.

The Los Angeles plan would have the proposed boulevard connect Pasadena with the proposed Figueroa street at El Estero Park and link with the new highway to Palmdale.

The Pasadena Realty Board's original proposal for Arroyo Seco, a boulevard provided for routing the highway along the bed of the arroyo. The Realty directors stated that they would send a copy of their original recommendation to William Fox, secretary of the county planning group.

CALL ISSUED TO PIED PIPER

Army of Felons Would be Welcomed at Yuba Linda as Mice Run Rampant

YORBA LINDA, May 21.—This city is one place where cats are in demand. Residents are not bothered by the howls of felines on their back fences. Rather, they are seeking cats.

The sudden demand has been caused by the invasion of an army of field mice. The mice are nipping garden products, climbing avocado trees and eating the fruit and in other ways making life miserable for local farmers.

The rodents are about twice as large as the ordinary mouse.

MILLIKAN TO RECEIVE NEW HONOR

Science Chair in Near East Colleges Will be Named for Pasadena

PARADENA, May 21.—The science chair in the Near East colleges, for the endowment of which this city is attempting to raise $80,000, will be named for Dr. Robert A. Millikan, director of the California Institute of Technology, it was announced today in a communication to the local campaign committee from Dr. Robert Freeman, pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

"With characteristic modesty, Dr. Millikan refuses to see that giving his name to a chair of science in one of the Near East colleges will help at all in the local campaign," recites the memorandum to the committee.

"However, he is willing to yield to our judgment in this, and allow us to plan to consecrate our Pasadena Science chair to the memory of Dr. Freeman's letter will be of aid because it confirms the committee's plan to dedicate the Pasadena quota to the 'Millikan' professorship."

FALLING TREE STARTS MULES ON RAMPAGE

AZUSA, May 21.—Confusion in the wake of a pair of frisky mules this morning when they took it into their heads to have a spree which looked serious for a few minutes. But J. A. Aguirre, veteran teamster, said, "Mules will be mules."

It all happened during the uprooting of a monkey puzzle tree in the City Park grounds. The cable from the doubletree was too short and when the tree was loosened, it fell in the direction of the mules. They took the accident as an offense and dashed wildly from the scene dragging tree and all.

The runaway voluntarily came to a halt about two blocks from the scene where they patiently awaited their driver.

BIG ELECTRIC SIGN WILL BE REPLACED

REDDA, May 21.—Redda is to get back its large electric sign and the Boulevard Veterans Club heretofore has pointed the way into the Redda district. The large cable which once held the sign is to be replaced, it is announced by Robert Ward, secretary of the Redda Chamber of Commerce.

After months of negotiation the telephone company revoked a decision to eliminate electric signs suspended from telephone-company poles. It was contended that the sign affected the phone service.

GOSNELLS LOSE OIL DECISION

Court Refuses to Give Back Lease and Royalties

VENTURA LITIGATION SAID TO INVOLVE $3,000,000

Appeal to Higher Court is Hinted by Plaintiffs

VENTURA, May 21.—An oil suit involving title to one of the richest leases in the Ventura-avenue field was brought to a climax today when Superior Judge Edward Henderson ruled that Ralph B. Lloyd, "father" of the Ventura field, had no right to return to the guardians of Truman B. Gonnell either the latter's former interest in the Gonnell lease, which Gonnell said to Lloyd in 1925 for $75,000, or the back royalties on the lease.

Judge Henderson's findings were exceptionally brief, stating merely that the court found for the defendant, Ralph B. Lloyd, and contained an order to Lloyd's attorneys, Lawler and Duggan of Los Angeles and to the Ventura County Superior Court, to prepare the findings in the case, which will be approved later by the court.

HARD-FOUGHT CASE

TRIAL OF R. B. GONNELL SAID TO INVOLVE MORE THAN $3,000,000 FOR THE VALUE OF THE LEASE, OCCUPIED SEVEN WEEKS LAST SUMMER AND BROUGHT OUT ONE OF THE MOST INTERESTING ARRAYS OF LEGAL TALENT SEEN FOR MANY YEARS IN THE VENTURA COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT.

Ira Gonnell and Lena Gonnell, son and daughter of Truman B. Gonnell, were a few days before the filing of the suit on February 11, 1927, appointed guardians of the latter when he was declared a lunatic. Superior Court mentally unable to manage his own affairs. The elder Gonnell had sold his one-third interest in the Ventura field to Lloyd for $75,000. At that time Gonnell was 76 years of age.

FRAUD CHARGED
Later deep sands were struck by the shell company in the Gonnell case, which was the subject of a suit filed in February, 1927, Gonnell's guardians charged that Lloyd had fraudulently induced Gonnell to sell his oil interests, which they alleged had a potential value of $3,000,000.

In seeking for the return of the Gonnell lease oil interests, the plaintiffs also sought a total of $347,000, which Lloyd had collected in royalties from the lease since the time he had bought Gonnell's interests up to the date of the filing of the suit.

The plaintiffs charged that Gonnell was not mentally able to handle his affairs at the time he sold his interests to Lloyd, while Lloyd contended that Lloyd had sold his oil interests, which they alleged had a potential value of $3,000,000.
